Senators Resent His Officiousness.

Senate in Fussy Mood Over Exclusion Bill.

House Votes Pension to Mrs. McKinley-Scrippers Lose Their Case.

BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.] Washington, April 42.—(Exclu-sive Dispatch.) Wu Ting Fang, Chinese Minister to the United States, was bitterly attacked in the Senate today while Senators were debating the Chinese Exclusion Bill, and his recall from this capital may be the result of his unusual interference in American legislative affairs.

During the debate today a letter that Minister Wu wrote some time ago to Secretary of State Hay, protesting against the enactment of stringent Chinese exclusion legislation, was read to the Senate. This letter itsel already been published, having been given out several weeks ago by Secretary Hay, but it riled up the Senate today as it has not been riled up before during its ong debate on the exclusion bill, and Senator Teller, who led in the attack upon Wu, declared that the United States could not stand this sort of interference in its legislative affairs and naintain its self-respect before the corld. Generally speaking, the Senate was in a fussy mood with the entire Chinese exclusion question today. The opening of the debate for the day by Senator Lodge was not by any means an enthusiastic support for the bill, although Mr. Lodge himself helped to frame the bill and spoke ostensibly for it. LODGE'S SPEECH. In support of the pending bill, Mr. Lodge of Massachusetts made a some-what extended speech, although there what extended speech, actioning there were some provisions of the measure to which he was opposed; he hoped some sections would be omitted, and some others modified. In his opinion was a section of the Philippines should be excluded. Congress had excluded Chinamen from Hawaii, and he regarded it as idle to argue that Congress had not the authority to prevent the Chinese from coming to this coun-try from the Philippines. He urged, too, that Chinese should not be per-ritted to enter the islands—certainly not vuless the Filipinos desired them to enter.

Mr. Lodge antagonized the substi-Mr. Platt. He said the adoption of the substitute would merely put off the evil day. The present legislation was meager, and it was only proper that Congress should act affirmatively and courageously upon the question. Mr. Lodge strongly antagonized that employment on American ships. The adoption of that provision, he said. would put every American vessel on the Pacific Coast in an absolutely hopethe Facilic Coast in an absolutely nope-less position. He declared that it would drive every American ship on the Pacific Coast under a foreign flag and send every foreign ship into Van-

He urged that there were not enough American seamen on the Pacific Coas to meet the requirements of the bill, and he pointed out that the provision in the measure would operate to the disadvantage of the country. He maintained that the operation of the pending bill would not disturbour trade relations with China. He was firmly devoted to the sanctity of the treaties of this country and knowingly would not vote to violate any treaty, certainly not any treaty with China. The very legislation now on the statute books was in a measure a violation of our treaty with China, as it was enacted before the treaty of 1894 was prografied. The product he negotiated. The pending measure, he naintained, was not in contravention of the treaty of 1894, which provided that Chinese laborers should be excluded.

HANNA'S ANTIDOTE. Mr. Hanna of Ohio interupted to read a telegram from the president of the Merchants' Exchange and the president of the Chamber of Compresident of the Chamber of Com-merce of San Francisco and several other prominent San Francisco busi-ness men, urging the reënactment of the Geary Act, because it would pro-tect fully American labor and doubtless would add to the trade of the United States.

"While I am on my feet," said Mr. Hanna, "I will present an antidote to that dispatch. It is a telegram from to that dispersion in the Bartenders' Union in support of the pending bill."

Amid some laughter, Mr. Lodge said he did not think the Senate ought to (CONTINUED ON FIFTH PAGE.)

RUSSELS. April 12.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] There were no serious disturbances here throughout the day, with the exception of a few cases where revolvers were fired, but at 10:30 o'clock tonight, there was an affray between gendarmes and rioters, which is described as worse than any of the disorders and riots in 1893 and 1899. A mob which had assembled in Rue Haute, near the Malson du Peuple, peited the gendarmes with balls containing sulphurie acid, and attacked them with butchers' knives, shouting at the same time: "Long live the revolution and the republic!" week has already been dubbed Revision Week, and it promises to witness important events. A general strike has been proclaimed for Monday and on Wednesday a political crisis will be reached by the opening in the Chamber of Deputies of the question of the revision of the constitution, on which the Belgians are now divided. The socialists and the Liberals have for a long time past been seeking to force the clerical government to an issue on the question of the electoral law, modification of which will necessitate a revision of the Constitution.

At the present time any elector can this qualifications. The Socialists and Liberals declare that workingmen cannot obtain more than two votes, whereas the rich get three; and, more over, that in the furnal districts you reas the rich get three; and, more, over, that in the rural districts voters who are under the domination of the priests and who support the pres-ent government, are often fraudu-lently given three votes instead of the two to which, at the most, they are lently given three votes instead of the two to which, at the most, they are shittled.

The Liberal leader in the Chamber of Deputies, M. Jansen, submitted a motion for the revision of the Constitution, which the government has agreed shall go before the chamber next Wednesday. If the Clerical majority consents to take the proposition under consideration it will be referred to a committee for examination. This will be the first gain for the revisionists, and it will undoubtedly have an immense effect in calming the country, which at the present is everywhere in a state of revolution. The belief prevails in many quarters that the government will give this opportunity to the revisionists with the privilege of afterward throwing out the proposition. In the meanwhile, from almost every mning and industrial district comes news that large numbers of men have decided to strike on Monday. Partial strikes began yesterday at Liege, Charlerol and ejsewhere, and it is reported that 20,00 men are already out. The government is very anxious concerning the situation in the mining districts. Regiments of infantry and cavairy have been drafted to the various centers, and quarters have been prepared at many mines and industrial works for detachments of troops to guard the properties.

Le Peuple, a Socialist paper of Brussels, is openly selling revolvers to workmen. For some time past a big advertisement has appeared in its columns daily, headed: "Prizes for our peaders," and offering revolvers at specially low prices. One of the weapons offered, described as a "cowboy" revolver, is sold for 1.8 75 centimes, while more formidable weapons are offered at 1.1. It is stated that 4000 revolvers have been sold in the past three months, which fact explains the frequency of revolver fising in the recent disorders.

ANARCHISTS THE RIOTERS.

[BY THE NEW ASSOCIATED PRESS AM.]

BRUSSELS April 12.—Perhaps the most significant event of yesterday was the open rupiture in the Chamber of Deputies between the Socialists and the Liberal faction, heretofore associated with the former, with the object of forcing the government to grant universal suffrage. This split notably strengthens the government to grant universal suffrage. This split notably strengthens the government to grant universal suffrage and the collision of the moderate parties promises to last as long as the incipient revolution con-as long as the incipient revolution continues.

The police, gendarmes and Civic Guards, who are all regarded as thoroughly trustworthy, are being utilized, so far as possible in dealing with those who take part in demonstrations, but not in riots. These demonstrators are mostly composed of earnest Socialists, while the rioters are more closely allied with anarchism. Regarding the troops, there is no doubt that they are leavened with Socialism. Many men in the ranks do not hesitate to expound subversive doctrine, and there is some apprehension as to their loyalty when the acute stage of the agitation is reached, with the beginning of the general strike next week. The government has taken the most comprehensive measures not to be taken by surprise, and is firmly resolved not to yield to the revolutionary movement, holding that in order to deal properly with the questions of the revision of the constitution and universal suffrage, it is essential that Parliament be enabled to deliberate uninfluenced by the mob.

A dispatch from Mons announces that preparatory to a general strike at the Borinage coal mines. April 14, the men from several of the pits have already brought their tools to the surface.

REVIEW OF SITUATION.

REVIEW OF SITUATION. DANGER OF REVOLUTION.

DANGER OF REVOLUTION.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

BRUSSELS. April 12.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Though the impetus to violence and riot throughout Belgium has a distinctly Socialistic origin, it must not be confused with anarchy, which so often seeks to shelter itself under the cloak of Socialism.

The Belgian Socialists are now fight. The Belgian Socialists are now fighting for universal suffrage. The present franchise on its surface is of a thoroughly popular type, for every man of the age of 25 has a vote. This was gained by the last great demonstration about eight years ago, when the Clerical party was frightened into submission. But the people now complain that the franchise is so weighted with provisions for plural voting with property qualifications, and other family restrictions, that the working classes are deprived of representation in the great centers of population where they are numerically paramount. There are two upper classes of voters, one with three votes, the other with two votes each, according to station and education. The Socialists show that this system was engineered so as to virtually disfranchise the workingmen. The populous centers now demand "one man, one vote," and that the age of voting be 21. At the general election two years ago thirty-three Radicals, thirty-three Socialists and thirty-five Roman Cathos are deprived of representation cialists and thirty-five Roman Catholics were returned. The two forme

French-speaking provinces in the south, always peculiarly open to incitement to disorder. Added to this is the threat of the Council General of the Labor Institute of a general strike, while most serious of all in danger, is the attitude of the military, on which the government must rely to suppress any outbreak. The soldiers, undoubtedly to a great extent sympathize with the people, and may partly fail the government. The temper of the people is evidently thoroughly roused now, and it seems that only a timely concession, as was made eight years ago, can avert the serious outbreak of trouble that was averted then.

TOM GARRETT SLUGGED.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 12.-[Exclusive Dispatch.] Thomas Garrett, publisher of the Evening Post, was assaulted this morning on Fost street, near the corner of Stockton. He was knocked down and so severely beaten that he is confined to his rooms. He says three men attacked him, one of whom struck him in the face with brass knuckles. The second hit him several times when he was prostrate on the sidewalk, he says, and the third, whom he declares to be Fred, alias "Young Dutchy" Hansted, preventing his pursuing his assailants by pretending to come to his rescue. Garrett says the attack was the result of a conspiracy against his life and that the three men were hired thugs. Han-sted was arrested. He says he was in a cigar etore on Post street when a man struck Garrett, that he recognized the man as a frequenter of the race track, whose name he does not know, and that he went to the victim's as-sistance. Al Dixon also saw the as-sault, and says that but one man struck Garrett, so far as he was able to observe, and that this man was not Short Line and San Pedro Roads Postpone Court Proceedings.

IBY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.I SALT LAKE CITY, April 12 - [Exclusive Dispatch.] This afternoon a stipulation was signed by counsel of the San Pedro and Oregon Short Line in this city, by which all pending court proceedings in the Nevada district courts and the United States Land Office are postponed until June 1. This action was taken on receipt of a telegram from Vice President T. E. Gibson from Los Angeles to that effect. The postponement is not looked upon in railroad circles as being in the nature of any hitch whatever, but simply for the purpose of enabling a more complete investigation of the Meadow Valley Wash surveys, which involve big interests and a great deal of money.

The cases were to have been heard on the first of next month and it is said that the San Pedro is ready to go ahead, but the Oregon Short Line has not yet its maps in shape to be sent to New York for adoption by the directors and then sent back to Mr. Harriman final consideration.

It was originally intended to dispatch about 600 men of the Fifteenth Cavalry, with detachments from other mounted regiments on the Kilpatrick, and many reservations were made for cabin passengers. Last night, however, orders from the Department at Washington caused a change in the plans, and recruits only, to the number of 180 marched aboard the troopship this morning. Many of the orders for cabin space were canceled, also.

The recruits were under command of Maj. Torrey, who is also the ranking officer with the expedition. Twentynine hospital corpsmen, under Captain-Surgeon William G. Miller, are on board, and a few civilians' and officers' wives complete the list of those who sailed on the Kilpatrick was first scheduled to sail. April 20, but of the 50,000 troops in the Philippines, half a dozen regiments are due to leave on the return voyage, before June 1, and the Kilpatrick is needed in Manila to assist in bringing them home.

they are malicious, or to give the person making them the opportunity of showing that they are true.

"The second circumstance referred to by Dr. Philipson is the Tayabas report of Maj. Gardener, as civil governor of that province. Dr. Philipson says that the report was suppressed by the governmental authorities. How suppressed? The facts are that in tratifying before the committee I voluntered without suggestion from the committee to present to it certain reports to rebut the charges that there was no tranquillity in provinces said to was no tranquillity in provinces said to be pacified. There was no obligation on my part, therefore, to present any report in regard to the Tayabas mat-ter, for I was not asked to do so. Be-fore the time when I presented the reports I had submitted the Tayabas re-port to the Secretary of War for inves-tigation."

MANILA, April 12.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] A committee of merchants called on the editors of Freedom today, and asked them to sanction the request to the Governor to withdraw the sedition charges against them, be-cause the time was unauspictous for such affair, and it would create a sen-sation in the United States. Freedom is the newspaper which recently printed a savage attack on the civil government, asserting that it was corrupt and rotten, and that most of its appointees ought to be put in jail or deported. The editors and managers of the paper were arrested as a consequence of this publication, under the treason and sedition law. When the merchants offered to intervene the editors refused to sanction any such request. They say that they can prove all the charges they have made.

PHILIPPINES COMMITTEE.

CALLS FOR INFORMATION. WASHINGTON, April 12 .- The Sen ate Committee on the Philippines be gan its proceedings today, by adopting a resolution offered by Senator Carmack, calling upon the Secretary of War for all the orders, circulars and official reports received from commanders and their subordinates in the provinces of Tayabas, Batangas, Samar and Laguna. Gen. MacArthur was again today the only witness before the committee, and only withese before the committee, and his examination was begun by Senator Culberson. His questions related to the relationship between the native forces, and the American troops when the latter first landed at Manila.

Senator Culberson called attention Senator Culberson called attention to the fact that there is testimony on file to the effect that Gen. Anderson had written to Aguinaldo inviling his coperation at Manila, and that the latter had accepted, and that it also is stated that Gen. Merritt had himself sent an aide to Gen. Greene, suggesting that arrangements be made with the Filipinos for a common understanding in the occupation of the trenches. He then asked if, in view of these facts, the inference was not authorized that friendly cooperation was desired by the American officials with the Filipinos in the attack upon the Spaniarias.

after Gen. Merritt had issued his order of battle, he (MacArthur) was in consultation with Gen. Anderson when the latter received a communication from Gen. Merritt directing the latter to inform Aguinaldo that the batter to inform Aguinaldo that the must not participate under any circumstances. Aguinaldo was at that time, Gen. MacArthur said, five miles away, and the message was sent to him by wire. He knew, however, that the Filipino leader had received it, because he had declined to accept the suggestion, and he and his native forces had participated in the engagement the next day. What had become of that communication Gen. MacArthur said he did not know. He also said that if there had been cooperation between Aguinaldo and Gen. Anderson while the latter was in command of the American forces, he did not know it.

Senator Patterson then asked a series of questions intended to bring out the fact that there had been an understanding between the American commanders, Gen. Merritt and Admiral Dewey and the Spanish commanders that the attack upon Manila should be a mere feint with the view of securing a surrender with an appearance of a battle, but without any real fight. Gen. MacArthur said that if there had been such an understanding he knew nothing of it.

"If there was such an agreement the fact never reached me as a brigadier," said Gen. MacArthur, and I have never yet heard it officially. All my orders were for battle."

Senator Culberson reiterated the statements concerning Gen. Merritt's first dealings with the Filipinos as to the use of the trenches, and also the orders to Gen. Anderson cited by Gen. MacArthur regarding the notification to Aguinaldo, and asked if that were "not a change of policy on Merritt's part, after he had reaped the benefits of cooperation with the native troops."

This question practically brough to a close a graft, that is, that they are corruptily receiving money for their action as commissioners. Prosecution has been begun, it is said, under the sedition law, against the editor of the Freedom, in which he will have a full opportunity to show, as a defense, that such corruption exists, if it does exist.

"Under a law of libel, a charge that a public body or that a member of a public body is guilty of corruption is not a charge upon which a suit by any particular member, not named, of that body can be founded. Under the sedition law a charge of that kind against a governmental body can be prosecuted, and the defendant given an opportunity to show that it is true. It does not aid the discussion, nor is it material whether it be called sedition or criminal libel to call such a prosecution less majeste.

"The question presented is simply whether a newspaper shall be permitted day after day to charge that the lignest governmental body in the Islands is composed of men who are corruptly using their power to make money, without any opportunity to any menber of the body, or to the body as a whole, to take action by a suit, before a court regularly constituted, to punish such malicious misstatements, if they are malicious, or to give the person making them the opportunity of showing that they are true.

JUDGE ADVOCATE VERY SEVERE IN HIS SUMMING UP.

Accused Defendant With Listening to Dictates of Ambition and not of Duty and Called Shooting of Natives "the Raffle of Death."

MANILA, April 12.—[By Manila Ca-ble.] The judge-advocate, Maj. Henry P. Kingsbury, replied today to the summing up before the court-martial yesterday of Capt. Arthur T. Marix, representing Maj. Littleton W. T. Wal-ler, who is being tried for executing natives of Samar without trial.

Maj. Kingsbury made an eloquent address. He contended that Maj. Wai-ler was under military and not mar-tial law, and that there was nothing tial law, and that there was nothing in the conduct of the men who were shot deserving of such punishment. The judge-advocate blamed Maj. Waller himself for the disasters which befell the marines, and accused him of abandoning ten helpless comrades, "whose bones are now bleaching on the banks of the Leapars" to die of hunger.

bones are now bleaching on the banks of the Lanang," to die of hunger. The judge-advocate's denunciation of the methods by which the prisoners, who were to be shot, were chosen, was dramatic. They were lined up, he said, "for the raffle of death, at the sole will and pleasure of Private Davis, a marine, who was judge and prosequitor." He referred to Davis's festimony in terms of withering scorn, accused Maj. Waller of listening to the dictates of ambition, and not to the dictates of ambition, and not to the dictates of control of the stiff of th

THINK BOERS WILL QUIT.

England Certain That Peace is Near.

Disappointment May Be Born of Optimism.

Ministers Not Eager to Present the Budget-Another Cabinet Meeting.

INV DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES! LONDON, April 12.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The wish is so much the father to the thought that the country persists in believing that peace is really at hand. There's no more reason for this belief now than there was a fort-night ago, inless, indeed, the Boer leaders at their first full meeting yes-terday definitely decided the whole terday definitely decided the whole question of peace proposals. This is extremely improbable.

The expectation of those best acquainted with the situation is that the next move of the Boers at Klerksdorp will be a request for the use of the cable for communication with delegates in Holland. Such a request, if made as a prerequisite to opening negotiations, will probably be granted, although the British authorities will doubtless persist in the attitude that negotiations with themselves must be conducted entirely in South Africa. The sole basis for today's renewed peace rumogs is the special session of the Cablnet. This meeting, however, prob-Cabinet. This meeting, however, probably had to deal with other questions than the consideration of Boer pro-

There is renewed reason for the belief that there is a difference of opinion within the government in regard to its financial policy as affected by the war. It is affirmed that this is the real reason for the postponement of the budget announcement. The presence of Colonial Secretary Chamberlain and Sir Michael Hicks-Beach, Chancellor of the Exchequer, lends color to the report that their respective illnesses were of the kind usually described as diblomatic. A direct denial was forthdiplomatic. A direct denial was forth-coming from both gentlemen of the ex-treme story that a Cabinet crisis had arisen over their differences of opinion. Chamberlain is credited with being the advocate of a general war loan, while the Chancellor of the Exchequer fa-vors paying war expenses by direct taxation.

There is little doubt that the budget has been drawn on extremely drastic lines, on the assumption that the war must continue for a considerable time. These harsh measures, which, of course, would be highly unpopular, would be considerably modified if the would be considerably modified if the government had reasonable hopes of an early peace. It must be assumed, in any case, that some time must elapse before definite peace news can be announced under even the most favorable circumstances.

RUMORS SUMMED UP. TBY THE NEW ASSOCIATED PRESS-P.M. LONDON, April 13.—"Peace is within measurable distance," probably sums up the present crop of rumors, conjectures and deductions which has conjectures and deductions which has Great Britain by the ears. 'Is it peace?" meets the eye in glaring pos-ters of newspapers, and the question is recenced throughout the United Kingdom. As pointed out in these dispatches yesterday, and confirmed at midnight by Mr. Balfour, the govern-ment leader in the House of Commons.

the reports of a definite end of the conflict of such length, involving so many lasting and intricate issues, being reached practically without any time being devoted to negotiation, are paipably premature.

It is announced that the ministers at today's meeting, which lasted one-hour, discussed a communication from Lord Kitchener. This is quite within reason, and government circles expect several similar messages from Lord Kitchener before anything definite can be announced.

While Lord Kitchener's message may have been of vital importance, the Associated Press has good reasons to believe that, the sudden summons of the Cabinet ministers was due to a desire to decide whether or not the presentation of the budget could not be postponed until the Kjerksdorp negotiations are settled one way or the other. Whatever the proposals of the Chancellor of the Exchequer, Sir Michael Hicks-Beach, may be they are bound to be greeted by storms of criticism from various quarters. Peace will not modify the crying need of additional revenue, but it would take off the sting from the additional taxation which is bound to raise as protest from every class of industry affected. The London police officials today were ordered to keep large forces in order to avoid any repetition of "Mafeking night," which it is feared might ensue should the conclusion of peace be announced.

One of the curious features of the

One of the curious features of the present negotiations is that five of the Boers representatives secured a legal training at the English bar.

The repeated rumors of Joseph Chamberlain's resignation of the office of Colonial Secretary, which were received after the publication of his signed depial, may be utterly disregarded. They rise out of serious differences existing between himself and the Chancellor of the Exchequer over the West-Indies and other colonial matters requiring treasury cooperation, which have frequently been mentioned in these dispatches, and which appear to be more acute than they have been for months.

personal charge, assisted by the members of the local Committee of Arrangements.

The gathering will be held in the auditorium, which is being fitted up and decorated for the occasion. It is estimated that there will be 2400 delegates to respond to the roll call. It is possible that the total number of delegates may exceed this figure.

The local committees concluded their labors tonight, and made final reports to President Anderson. The local work of preparation has been most satisfactory, and San José will do her best to entertain the large crowd of visitors which is coming. In addition to the regular delegates, a great many people are taking advantage of the reduced rates of the railroads to visit the convention, and the Committee on Rooms and Accommodations has been maxed to its utmost to provide accommodations for the large crowd.

Many of the party leaders have already arrived, and others are expected Sunday. The president of the State League states that Gov. Gage and other State officers will attend. Among those prominent in the State League who arrived today are Samuel M. Shortridge, Senator Lukens, F. H. Cory, Jacob Stephacher, W. H. J. NEW YORK, April 12.—The Appellate Division of the Supreme Court today affirmed the conviction of Johann Most, on a charge of printing in his newspaper, the Freiheit, an improper article entitled "Murder vs. Murder." The article was published about the time-of the assassination of President McKinley, Most was sentenced to a year's imprisonment. Regarding Most's contention that the Constitution gave him a right to publish the article, the court says:

"The Constitution doesn't give to a citizen the right to murder, nor does it give him the right to advise the commission of that crime by others. What it does permit is liberty of action only to the extent that such liberty does not interfere with or deprive others of an equal right."

OXNARD, April 12.—The American OXNARD, April 12.—The American Beet Sugar Company is putting in an immense purification plant for the immense purification plant for the coming season at the Oxnard factory. The installation of the plant was made necessary by the large amount of scale-forming material found in the water, there being 31.82 per cent. of scale-forming solids. The water is clear, cold and good for drinking, but very hard, and at the end of the sugar season the inside of the twenty-eight big bollers, the drains and steam pipes were found thoroughly covered, some of the flues nearly solid, and it was found necessary to drill them all outavery slow and expensive Job—and when the work was completed wagon-loads of salts were hauled away. With the installation of the purification plant all this will be obviated. The plant will cost $12,000.

EL PASO (Tex.) April 12.—A peculiar case is reported from Parallel, Mex., as the outcome of a chase after a man charged with the robbery of a stage coach in Idaho in 1893.

Postal authorities had been on the trail of a man supposed to be Charles Gilbert Webb, suspected of being implicated in the above robbery for nine years, and only recently effected an arrest of the suspect at his father-inlaw's mill, seventy-two miles from Parallel. American authorities have just received an appeal from the man imprisoned at Parallel asking that he be released because he is not the person wanted, but a brother of the latter. The description of the man now in jali tallies with that of the one arrested, and the officers who made the arrest think that by cleverly disguising themselves in the prisoner's cell, a change of places has been effected by the two brothers, and the alleged guilty one has been allowed to escape. Of course if the one now in jail can prove his identity, as claimed, the officers say he must be allowed his freedom.

(BY THE NEW ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.) CHICAGO, April 12.—While the will of the late Daniel Wells has not been filed for probate yet, its provisions have been learned, says the Tribune's haiwaukee special. It disposes of the greatest fortune in Wisconsin, estimated at from $16,000,000 to $20,000,000. It gives $6000 in bequests to six local charities, and the balance of the estate is left in trust, the income to be paid to his daughter, Mrs. Charles Norris, and her son, the descendants of his four sisters, and to his friends, Isaac Stephenson of Marinette and Horace A. J. Upham of Milwaukee. His daughter and grandson get fifty parts of the trust, the descendants of his sisters nineteen, and his friends twelve parts. The will provides that the trustees shall not be required to make inventory or to give bonds. BY THE NEW ASSOCIATED PRESS-A.M.

It began with thirty pupils, in an old church and a partly-ruined shanty, where, when it rained, one of the elder pupils kindly held an umbrella over Mr. Washington's head. It now costs $100,000 for annual running expenses, had 2460 acres of land comprise the institute farm, which is a model one. The academic work is about the same as the local high-school course. Every student, whether rich or poor, must work a certain portion of the day in the manual training department, and cannot be graduated until he or she has acquired a trade. By many Mr. Washington is condemped for insisting upon this manual training, but he insists that so long as 90 per cent. of all people earn their living by their hands, it is wise and best to train the colored people to work first; intellectual development can come later.

A NEW BABY.

Old One Made Over by Grape-Nuts A delicious food that is nourishing

A delicious food that is nourishing for both mother and infant may be depended upon to fit other people. This mother's story is interesting:

"My baby is now a fine, robust little fellow two years and six months old, but I had a dreadful time with him at first. I could not nurse him because I was so weak I did not have the milk for him, so I gave him different kinds of foods, but he was crying nearly all of the time and would vomit after every meal.

His condition worked on my, nerves dreadfully, and I called in Dr. Campbell. After inquiring carefully into the case, he said, 'You send at once for some Grape-Nuts, take four teaspoonfuls in a cup of hot milk on gospoonfuls in a cup of hot milk on go-ing to bed, also feed your baby on some of the food in hot milk."

"Well, I followed the doctor's advice with good results at once. I could nurse my baby and he began to im-prove immediately, I, myself, got strong and well very rapidly. strong and well very rapidly.

"The neighbors were, of course, interested and they would always say,"How fast you are improving," 'How the little boys grows,' 'He don't look like the same baby, what are you feeding him?' So I have had to tell them one and all how Grape-Nutshave brought us both back to health. I wish other mothers knew of the value of this food."

Spier's millinery announcement. We have received another shipment of New York's latest effects in outling hats. This line is exclusive, no two alike; we are sole agents. Our workroom is also turning out a very stylish and exclusive line of street hats. We have received a second shipment of patterns and "Connelly Turbans." "Connelly" has sent us a special line to be sold at $15 in order to introduce them. You will find our patterns very reasonable, ranging in price $15 up. Trimmed hats out of our workroom, $6 up. S. S. Spier, milliner, $12 South Spring street.

Ladies, it is so easy to be well gowned if you only knew that I have just received many new and exclusive patterns for tailor-made suits. There is grace, dignity and a dainty charm in a well fitting gown—why should you wear anything else when you can get a suit to order at one-half the regular price, as low as $20 this week; all work guaranteed. See my new importations for summer wear; correct interpretations of the season's styles. M. Berry, the ladies' tailor, $30 S. Broadway.

REAL ESTATE LOANS.

As agent for a corporation known as the Phoenix Savings Building and Loan Association, of San Francisco, making loans upon real estate, I derire to call the attention of prospective borrowers to this little circular, and to the explanation of a method by which they can borrow money at reasonable rates and upon easy terms.

Our plan of making loans allows the repayment of the principal with interest in equal monthly installments, and, as each installment is paid, the amount so paid is divided in two parts; one being the interest upon the balance due, the other being a credit upon the principal sum secured by the mortgage. By this process the horrower pays interest ONLY UPON THE SUM OF MONEY UNPAID; and not interest upon the whole sum for the whole time, as has been the common practice of Building and Loan Associations in California during the past decade of years.

Our loan relieves the borrower from any stock liabilities, and from the dependence upon the maturity of stock, as is usually the case with Building and Loan Associations, for the purpose of determining the duration of the mortgage or the number of installments to be paid. The loan is a plain, everyday contract, stripped of all verbiage and technicalities and incomprehensible details and any school boy, with an ordinary knowledge of mathematics, can figure out the balance also upon one of our mortgage contracts. Tready of the mortgage of mathematics and amounts.

(b) Another option is presented. The borrower may reduce his original loan in sums of 3100, by the payment of an amount sufficient, together with the previous amounts paid upon each 3100, to equal the said sum of 3100, and by this means reduce the monthly installment of both principal and interest from three to ten years, as explained in the foregoing circular, and includes the payment of a loan of $100, and by th

THE SOLAR FURNACE. wonderful new invention, furnishing light and power from the sun's rays almost every purpose, either day on the without fire, fuel or expense. STEAM ENGINES.

PUMPING PLANTS. PUMPING PLANTS.

The Soiar Furnace will revolutionise the present irrigation system, especially in the Southwest, where water is scarce and fuelvery high. Any amount of water can be pumped from either deep or shallow wells; no fuel is required, and when a plant is once installed the expense is ended. On an pumping plants requiring over five horse-power, a steam engine is used, the steam being generated by the heat of the sun, as above stated. On plants of five horse-power, or less a "hot-air" engine with pump attachment is used. No fire, fuel, steam or water is used. Any ten-year-old boy can start it, and when once started it requires no further attention, but will go on pumping water as long as the sun shines.

A small plant may be made to pump sufficient water for a large tract by having reservoir and running the pump every day when the sun shines, using the water only as neded.

Bishop J. H. Johnson of the Episcopal. Church, purchased last week, from several different owners, eight lots located on the northeast corner of Bixel and Sixth streets, having a total frontage of 420 feet on Bixel by 170 feet on Sixth, for an aggregate price of about $14,000. The property is for the use of the Good Samaritan Hospital, and is to be used as a site for a new hospital building that will cost about $50,000, and be of modern pattern and design. The site chosen is a good one for such a building, and the structure that is to be crected will be a worthy adjunct to the present Good Samaritan Hospital on Seventh street near Figueroa.

Between Spring and Broadway.

Among the purchases of business properties, on cross streets, noted during the week, was that by which Edwin T. Earl acquired from Andrew R. Jackson and M. T. Baird, through the agency of G. M. Giffen, a lot, 34x 120 feet, on the north side of Fifth street, about midway between Spring and Broadway, and just east of the alley which lies between those thoroughfares and runs parallel with them, for $30,000. The property is improved with a single-story brick business building which will at once give place to a more pretentious structure, to be used as an office for the Express.

of the building when the furnace fire is first startedfi. This not only expedites the heating of the building, but insures a continuous current of air inside the house, and thereby aids in its ventilation. It is estimated that the entire dwelling can be heated to a comfortable temperature within ten minutes from the time the fire is started in the furnace. A porte cochere is found in the north side of the building, and a patio arrangement in the rear portion of the house, just east of the living room and den adds much to the convenience of theimmates. The lot upon which the dwelling stands is 100x150 feet, and affords a space of thirty-five feet between the house and the surrounding buildings. The cost of the residence was about $20,000. The interior finish of the building is in dark wood throughout and the decorations are very handsome. Modern conveniences are of course provided, and the tille roof covers not only a stylishistructure, but a comfortable, homelike dwelling.

Business Block for South Broadway.

Mrs. Florence Vandervort is to erect on the east side of Broadway between Third and Fourth structs, on a lot 40x 165 fet, lying just south of the Owens Bros. Block, a four-story, pressedbrick building, with basement, that will be occupied under a five-years lease by the Southern California Music Company. The plans of the structure are being prepared by Architects Hudson & Munsell. It will be 40x156 feet in its exterior dimensions, will be provided with elevators and modern conveniences and will probably cost about $40,000.

Sky Scraper for Spring Street.

Sky Scraper for Spring Street.

Architect John Parkinson is preparing the plans for the office building that is to be erected on the northeast corner of Fourth and Springstreets, for J. H. Braly, and associates. The owners have decided, as was reported exclusively in The Times Thursday, to make this a twelve-story structure. It will be the first genuine *ky-scraper for the city, and the location selected for its erection is an especially favorable one. The building will be thoroughly modern in all respects and will cost pretty close to $300,000.

Building Notes.

Hishop & Co. are having plans prepared by Arctitect R. B. Young for a three-story brick building that is to be erected on the northwest corner of Seventh and Alameda streets, for the use of the candy manufacturing and the canning departments of their business. It will front 200 feet on each of the streets named and will cost about $20,000.

J. W. Chalmers of the California Realty Company is building for Mr. Fred J. Osborn, a ten-room two-story frame dwelling on the west side of Flower street, between Eleventh and Twelfith streets. It will be modern in design and finish and will cost about $4000.

Following are among the plans for new buildings taken from the Builder and by Arctitects Morgan & Walls for a two-story brick warehouse to be erected at the corner of Second and Vine streets adjoining their present building.

COLDEN WEDDING OF MME. MARCHESI.

UNIQUE PESTIVITIES PREPARING FOR THE OCCASION.

Melba Has Them in Charge and Many of the Famous Pupils of the Vocal Teacher are Aiding to Make the Affair a Notable One.

PARIS, April 12:—(Exclusive Dispatch.) Numerous friends of the Marquise de Castrone, commonly known as Mme. Marchesi, are making preparations to celebrate on April 19 the golden wedding of the eminent teacher of vocal music, who has formed three generations of women's voices, including scores of divas of American birth.

Mme. Melba is organising the festivities, which will begin in the morning with grand high mass, performed IBY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

Mme. Melba is organizing the festivities, which will begin in the morning with grand high mass, performed in the Catholic Church in Avenue Roche, at which the finest male voices in Paris will be heard. Then will come the ceremony of the wedding, being as nearly as possible a reproduction of the wedding ceremony performed April 19, 1852, and at which Mme. Marchesi's pupills will take the part of bridesmaids, wearing gowns of the second empire period.

The papal nuncio has been petitioned to ask the Pope to suspend the rule prohibiting women singers in French churches, as Mme. Melba and other divas want to take part in wedding music, but both the Pope and the arch-bishop of Paris have refused to make exception for this occasion. After the church ceremony there will be an elaborate wedding breakfast, with orchestral music, and Valgrain, the Parisian sculptor, will present the stately golden tral music, and Valgrain, the Parisian sculptor, will present the stately golden wedding bride with a statue of herself, in which she is represented seated, holding a roll of music in her hand. The statue will appear in the coming salon. Miss Emma Bullet will present to her a small portrait of Mme. Marchesi made fifty-three years ago. This portrait is richly encased in gold like the cathedral reliquaire. Marquis and Marquise de Castrone are still an active, robust, evergreen couple, not withstanding the fact that each is over 89 years old. They are both as straight Horse With a Peculiarly-shaped Shoe Proves His Undoing-Warning Sent to Him and He Escapes-Houseful of Stolen Property.

BY THE NEW ASSOCIATED PRESS-A.M.) NEW YORK, April 12.-In the restence occupied by a man known as corge T. Howard at Ridgewood, N. J., George T. Howard at Ridgewood, N. Finally, two horses and carriages were stolen from Murray, N. Y. One of the horses wore a peculiarly shaped shoe by which it was traced for twenty miles, the trail ending in Howard's barn, where the property was found. Search warrants were at once issued, the house entered and found to be filled with all sorts of plunder. Only Mrs. Howard was at home. Mr. Howard had disappeared as had the boy, who fied to Jersey City, where he was found and arrested, but in the meantime had communicated with his father, and took his arrest with the greatest degree of composure, even smiling contemptuously at the police when they tried to make him tell where his faher had gone.

AIRSHIP TO POLE,

INDIANAPOLIS, April 12.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Sergt. Julius Freder-ick, attached to the Weather Bureau in this city, and one of the survivors of the Greely expedition, announced today he had contracted to attempt to again reach the pole. Frederick has always contended that the Greely party could have reached the pole had so much time not been lost before the final effort was made, and the men had become exhausted, and he is anxious to try it care. try it again. Speaking of his plans, Frederick said:

Frederick said:

"I do not care what scientists or theorists think of the scheme which I have in mind. I have been there and know what I am doing, and I am frank in saying that the airship route is altogether the most feasible for reaching the pole. André went north in a balloon, depending on the air current to earry him across the pole. This was foolbardy in the extreme. He has probably been lost, but even so, he has not demonstrated that a sfeerable airship would fall."

COLOMBIAN INSURGENTS TAKE AMERICAN LAUNCH.

ONE OF ITS CREW SAID TO HAVE BEEN KILLED BY THEM.

The State Department Has Been In formed of Trouble, but Its Advices Make No Mention of the Killing of an American.

steam launches emuloyed by the fruit shippers, load barges with troops and move to Bocas. This was what 400 insurgents attempted, and partially carried out on April 6.

The men closed in round the plantation where the steamer owned by Krosman, Braden & Co., was made fast and in the afternoon made a rush for the landing and captured the boat.

The necessary information and affidavits in regard to the capture of the American craft were filed with the consular representative, and when the cruiser stationed in those waters for such occurrences arrives at Bocas, steps will be taken to force the revulutionists to give up their prize if they have not before that date carried out their plans and made things lively at Bocas del Torro.

PARTIALLY CONFIRMED. PARTIALLY CONFIRMED.

PARTIALLY CONFIRMED.

(BY THE NEW ASSOCIATED PRESS-P.M.)

WASHINGTON, April 12.—Save the short telegram of Thursday from Consul Malmaros at Colon, the State Department is without advices from the Isthmus in regard to the killing of an 9merican citizen, when the American steam launch was seized by Colombian insurgents at Bocas del Toro, However, the fact that Mr. Malmaros's cablegram did not mention the killing of an American citizen by the insurgents has made the officials doubt that the person killed was really an American, for they argue that the Consul would surely have mentioned a fact so important. If it turns out, however, that an American has been killed by the insurgents, as reported, then the State Department will deal more sternly with the situation in the Ishmus than it has heretofore. The Philadelphia is on the Pacific side of the Isthmus and the Machias probably will arrive at Colon today, if she has not already done so, and if this naval force is not sufficient to effectively protect American life and property, more ships will be sent to Colon at once from the North Atlantic squadron.

President of Federation of Women' Clubs Thinks Consideration of Color Question Will not Make Discord. THE NEW ASSOCIATED PRESS-P.M.)

ATLANTA (Ga.) April 12.-Mrs. R. becca D. Lowe, president of the General Federation of Women's Clubs, to-day issued the official programme for the next convention to be held in Los Angeles May 12. Mrs. Lowe declared today that the forthcoming biennia would be the largest in the history of the organization. The South, she said would send the largest and most representative delegation yet sent by that section to any national gathering of women.

resentative delegation yet sent by that section to any national gathering of women.

"The club movement is no longer in its formative or experimental stage," she continued, "and the reports to be read at the various sessions of the biennial will no longer deal with experiments suggested, but with the annual results of investigations and experiments along the lines for which the federated club movement stands.
"I have no fear that the harmony of the convention will be disturbed by any issue that may arise in discussion of the color question. On the contrary, I believe this will bring the club women of various opinions into closer touch in their opinions pertaining to a phase of the many-sided race problems that is interesting to all Americans. The matter will be discussed theoretically, nationally and from the standpoint of experience, and the women who will enter into a discussion will do so with deliberate views—the result of careful investigation and study."

SALTS OF LIFE.

Some Important Discoveries Made by Research Work of Students Under Direction of Dr. Jacques Loeb.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.] CHICAGO, April 12.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Some important discoveries in references to muscles, which prob-ably will be used by practicing physi-cians, have been made by research work of students in the effect of salts under direction of Dr. Jacques Loeb a noted investigator in physiologica chemistry at the University of Chicago

The cause of stiffening of muscles in death is one of the discoveries. This was made by Miss Anne Moore, Ph.D., now a teacher at San Diego, Cal. The unwonted presence of certain ealts, water or acid in tissue, causing a low-ering of temperature for coagulating or clotting of matter in muscles, is her explanation of "rigor mortis," or the stiffening of muscles at death. IBY THE NEW ASSOCIATED PRESS -A.M.1 WASHINGTON, April 11.—Gens. De Russey, Burt and Sheridan, who yes-terday were confirmed as brigadler-generals, have applied for retirement, and will be retired in a few days. Col. Mott Wooten of the Twenty-second In-16th inst., and other veterans of the Civil War nearing the age of retirement, will be advanced to the grade of brigadier-general before their retirement if it can be done without impairing the efficiency of the service. Probably included in this list are Cols. Snyder, Hood, McKibben, Lincoln and others.

Times ANSWERS BY EXPERT

Tomorrow The Times will inaugurate a new department entitled The Times' Answers by Experts. As indicated by the name, this department will present the views of writers of authority on all the questions selected as topics for consideration. What these questions will be is indicated quite fully in the particulars given below. The programme is arranged

Momentous Decisions

History is a narrative of what has resulted from momentous decisions. Caesar crossed the Rubicon and the Roman republic became an empire. Paul Kruger challenged England and the world is still waiting for the final outcome. Great men make great decisions, and there is unlimited interest and inspiration, particularly for young men, in the personal narratives by men of distinction concerning the circumstances and influences, the important turning points and the character or business crises related to the achieve ments which have made them con spicuous. Modern Thought About the Bible

How is the Bible regarded today by the men who are mighty in purpose to benefit their kind—the spiritual and intellectual leaders of the many different religious Where do they stand regarding such topics as the inspiration of the Bible, the so-called "higher criticism" of the Scriptures, the historical verity of such Bible narraas the account of creation, the story of the flood, etc.? What is their attitude toward miracles, and the narratives concerning Christ's life?

This series will answer, presenting different views on all the subjects considered. For example, Rev. James M. Gray, D. D., of Boston, author of "The Synthetic Study of the Bible," contributes on the first topic of the series, "The Creation of Man," an article opposing the evolutionary theory and strongly upholding the biblical narrative and in the same issue Henry F. Osborn, professor of zoology in Columbia University, will outline the evidence favoring evolution. This method will be followed through-WATCH "ANSWERS BY EXPERTS" IN THE TIMES.

The last crops are generally the best. The early sown had a severe test in the long drought between Nowember ald December, when they were put in, and much when the big rains came. On light soil and the upper mesas these crops are scant, The stalk is short like and the head very short. Grops put in along in February, which got the benefit of all the March rains, are looking well. They are not heading out yet, but show a good, strong are looking well. All depends on the next three weeks. If the weather remains cool, and fogs prevail, all will be well with almost every acre seeded to grain. But a heavy north wind or scorching heat within the next three weeks, catching the grain at a critical point in its development, would injure seriously a good deal of the crop.

At the worst there will be plenty of hay of prime quality, and probably enough barley for home needs. At the best there will be a surplus of hay and a good deal of barley for export.

Wise farmers went around and bought barley at 55 to 65 cents; paid 5 cents to have it rolled at the mill; bought little pigs, or good-sized shoats, and then bought skim milk from heir neighbors. With the milk and some alfalfa, piggy came to the estate of a hog. Then he got the opportunity to get together with the rolled barley. He is now a fat fellow, weighing 260

The deciduous-fruit trees and vine-yards are looking all right. The promise is good for great crops.

The sugar beets are growing day and night. There will be nearly fifty thousand acres of them and they will be worth about $3,00,000 to the producers.

THE BUB-BUB BEAN.

Everything is promising for the bean crop. It is not in the ground yet, but with favorable weather there should be $12,000 to 14,000 carloads to ship to 130s-ton and other eastern points, where Yankees and their imitators know what baked beans are like.

EDUCATION.

The matter of supreme importance in Shakespeare's works is his conception of life and the noble art in which it is embodied. To live with the poet in familiar intersourse, by constant reading with an open mind and heart, responsive to the power and sensitive to the beauty which penetrate and inform the plays, is to receive from him the most searching influence and the deepest pleasure. The end of art is to depen and intensify the sense of life, and this end is missed when one becomes absorbed in the study of language, form, conditions and circumstances. Some knowledge of these things is essential, but the emphasis of interest and study ought to region the indivisible soul and body of a work of art.—[Hamilton W. Mabie, in the April Ladies' Home Journal. EDUCATION.

TIONS.

The estimate of us held by the other republics of this hemisphere has not always been free from jealousy or suspicion, says John W. Foster in the April Atlantic. Neither are our commercial relations with them upon a satisfactory basis. There are several reasons for this, two of the leading ones being, first, the lack of frequent and direct communication, and, second, the absence of satisfactory tariff arrangement. Much might be done to overcome the first if our government would give greater encouragement to the establishment of steamship lines, and the second if satisfactory reciprocity treaties could be made.

Social intercourse is quite apt to follow commerce. With Mexico, since the opening of the various railroad lines, we have established not only a large commerce, but quite intimate financial and social relations; but with the other countries we have little trade and less sons for the latter. INTERIOR DEPARTMENT DECIDES IN FAVOR OF OIL MEN.

Lieu Land Selecters Given Another Set-back-Will Now Probably Begin Mandamus Proceedings in Courts of listrict of Columbia.

WASHINGTON, April 12.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The Interior Department today announced its decision in the final appeal brought in the "scrippers" ease, and, as in all other cases of this kind decided by the department, the scrippers get a complete knock-out. But it is expected that these persist-ent strivers after something that the government has repeatedly said does of the Kern Oll Company against Clarke, and the Gray Eagle Oil Cor. pany against Clarke, involving lands ing the investment of so much capital in the Visalia land district of Califor- as the forthcoming tests under the Bunia. The cases were decided by the Secretary of the Interior against the lieu land selectors almost a year ago. Upon one hand the lands in controversy were claimed by Clarke under forest reserve lieu land selections, and on the other they were claimed by the two companies named under placer mining locations made to secure mineral oils in the lands. After the principal of the companies of the lands of the

the two companies named under placer mining locations made to secure mining locations almost a year ago, the lieu land selectors filed a mation for a review in each case, accompanied by very extended printed briefs.

On account of the value of the lands in controversy, and of the general importance of the questions presented, Asst. Atty.-Gen. Vandevanter permitted oral arguments upon the motons for review, and granted to the opposing parties time within which to file further briefs. Because of the pendency of a somewhat similar case in the United States Court of Appeals at San Francisco, further briefs before the Interior Department were not filed until two or three months ago.

Since then the whole question. fore the interior Department were not filled until two or three months ago. Since then the whole question has been gone over carefully by the Assistant Attorney-General, with the result that a decision upon the motion for review in the Kern Oil case has been prepared, and was today ap-proved by the Secretary of the In-terior, fully adhering to the former de-Cision.

Similar action will be taken in the decision can be copied, which will be Monday or Tuesday of next week.

Robert J. Wynne Appointed First Assistant Postmaster-General-Other Nominations Made-Rockhill May Succeed Conger as Minister to China.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

WASHINGTON, April 12.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The President today nominated A. J. Crookshank to be Register of the Land Office at Los Angeles, an appointment that was agreed upon by Senators Bard and Perkins some time ago.

[Mr. Crookshank has filled the office with credit to himself and to the satisfaction of the government for the last four years, having been appointed by President McKinley. He was a resident of Santa Ana prior to his appointment, but his official duties have made it necessary for him to change his residence to Los Angeles.—Ed.]

of the whole and proceeded with the consideration of private pension bills. The Senate bill pensioning Ida S. McKinley, widow of the late President, at $500 per year, led to some discussion. Mr. Bell of Colorado asked what justification there was for such a large amount.

Mr. Grosvenor answered that this followed a well established precedent from the time of Washington.

Mr. Bell said he would not object, but he considered the precedent absolutely wrong and indefensible. The widow in this case, he said, had an independent income, the husband's estate inventorying at $210,000, and being understood to include valuable mining stocks. MUD HENS WIN BY GOOD LUCK.

Eleven Fierce Innings are Played.

Tapioca Hodson Proves an Easy Mark.

Skeeters Lose Another Game. Basket Ball Contest-On the Links.

That is the only way to speak of the catastrophe that happened yesterday.

Cheered on by as noisy a crowd of 2000 fans as ever got into a ball game with their mouths, the Looloos tried to win during the last two extra acts, but failed to connect, for the baseball luck that fell upbn the Mud Hens in showers, clouds and bunches at all stages of the proceedings, was too much to overcome. When four doubles, a triple and eight singles will not win a game with Taploca Hodson in the box for the foreigners, it's time to do up the chores and go into the rear row of the gallery and lie down on a chair.

That is just the kind of luck the Looloos were up against yesterday. They batted Taploca with consummate ease as the "perfect letter writer" would say, but even then the Mud Hens sneaked in and took the game. They were not entitled to it by any of the rules in the book. Although the locals made five bungles. these were not were not entitled to it by any of the rules in the book. Although the locals made five bungles, these were not whough to lose the game, with the hall-torm of hits that rattled around poor aploca's ears. Just why they did not in could probably not be clearly exided the fun.

win could propably not be clearly explained by any of the fans that attended the funeral.

They were a noisy lot of cranks, too, for they bellowed and howled, shouted, whistled and stamped their feet in a deafening manner as the Looloos struggled up the hill to the top, and even when they fell back again. Bedlam broke away from the keeper several times, but it was of no use; for the Mud Hens had all the luck. Oscar Jones, pitched his first game this season, and did remarkably well. He went into the game to win it, and he was as fercely serious as if he was chief mourner at a funeral. He was anxious to make good, and he certainly did, for, although he gave three bases, he struck out three men and allowed but eight hits in eleven innings, hitting only one man with the ball. He has more speed than he had last year, and more confidence, and if he keeps both he should be all that is needed.

Two of these eight swats were made in the first inning before Jones settled

Their next one came in the fourth on a hit, an error and a sacrifice, Francks hit past first, but when Atherton ran to set the ball, Jones did not cover the bag in time and then dropped the ball when Atherton tossed it to him. Francks went to second on Gorton's sucrifice to Raymer, and scored on Walters's hit to center, which Householder bungled.

aring the third-base line, which scored Buck.

The Looloos left the post three lengths behind, and worked like finds during the game to overcome this usually fatal first inning. They started off with Toman, who made a very lucky triple past third base, the bail going between the legs of both Devercaux and Dunleavy. The big crowd howled fercely at this, but more so when Hannivan scored Toman with a screamer to center. Atherton doubled, as urual, to the center fence, but did there unfortunately, for Raymer was out on a hit to Devereaux and Householder on a long drive against the right-field fence, which McCreedie managed to get.

In the fifth round after two were out Boach doubled to center, and scored right-field fence, which McCreedie managed to get.

In the fifth round after two were out Roach doubled to center, and scored on Jones's single to right, which McCreedie stood by and looked at, hoping it would fall on foul ground.

The locals tied the score in the seventh with two runs, and should have had more, but for that Mud Hen luck. Rube singled to left, stole second, and went to third on Jones's hit to Mohler, who assisted him out. Haamivan slammed a hard one to Mohler, and he not only bungled, but booted the ball to the right hand bleachers, allowing Rube to score, and sending Toman to third, he having preceded Hannivan with a base on balls. Atherton scored firmny with an easy one to Devereaux, which he juggled.

The noise over the tied score was something fearful, for 2000 fans were shouting, cheering, whistling and stamping in unison, and kept it up for the balance of the game. Neither side scored in the eighth, ninth or tenth innings, although both had swell opportunities several times.

When the eleventh inning opened, the din swelled in volume, for every one was on the ragged edge with excitement and hope. Waddell was put in to pitch in the tenth, and Dunleavy cracked him for a triple to the right fence, but falled to score. In the eleventh Hodson fanned out, and Walters went to second on Mohler's hit to Raymer, who booted it, and then the end came. Du Shane had been put into right field in the tenth in place of Waddell, and when Streib flashed a hit out there, Du Shane fondled it around long enough to sincw Walters to score from second.

The locals could not do a thing with

The final score was 50 to 40, without the relay, which was not run. New records for the 100-yard dash, and the shot put were made, but the records in the dashes will not count, as in the former the course was four inches short and in the latter nearly a yard. Although the general outcome had been counted on, surprises were many, among them being the phenomenal speed shown by Capt. McCaughern of Stanford and the magnificent sprint of Chapin of Occidental in the two-mile race, which left Burton of Stanford, one of the best long-distance runners in the State, well in the rear at the finish.

Occidental, 1.

In the hammer throw, Crawford represented Stanford and Cromwell and Buell, Occidental. It was Stanford's event almost to the last, but Cromwell, getting an extra-good swing, beat his former best throw by 10 feet and Crawford's by nearly 8. Cromwell, first, 115ft. 4½in.; Crawford, second, 107ft. 8½in. Score, Stanford, 11; Occidental, 7.

The broad jump was uneventful, the first and second places being won by Hagerman and Thompson, respectively, of Occidental, and third place by Bell, who represented Stanford. Distance, 20ft. 3ln. Score, Stanford, 12; Occidental, 15.
Chapin was the hero in the one-mile run, proving his superiority over Holman, representing Stanford, in a tremendous winning spurt at the finish. Time, 5m. 6s. Score, Stanford, 15; Occidental, 2l.
A new Southern California record was established in the 440-yard race by Dunn of Stanford, who trotted the last 50 yards and still had 19 yards to spare over Dane of Occidental, who ran second. Bacon of Occidental, who ran second. Bacon of Occidental, who ran second third place over Watson. Time, 52 3-5s. Score, Stanford, 20; Occidental, 25.
After a tedious contest, Bell of Stanford won the high jump with Thompson and Cromwell tied for second honors. Height, 5ft. 53-2in. Score, Stanford, 25; Occidental, 29.

If the 220-yard course had not been a trific short a new Coast record would have been established in that event by McCaughern of Stanford, who slowed up at the finish, thereby earliy lowing 1-5 of a second, and crossed the tape 22 1-5 seconds from the flash of the gun. Stanford men are deploring the fact that the track was short, for the addition of the 2ft. Sin., which it lacked of full measurement, would probably not have increased the time to the extent that the watches would have noted it. Although the time cannot go as a record, expert observers believe that the swift Stanford captain could have made the distance in 22 seconds flat. Hamilton of Stanford was a close second and Cleiand was behind him 5 yards for third place. Score, Stanford, 32; Occidental, 30.

A new Southern California record was made by Hyde of Stanford in the shot put, who tossed the leaden 16-pound missile, 4fft. 1154n. Crawford of Stanford was econd with a put of 38ft. 1154n., and Cromwell, representing Occidental, 41; Occidental, 31.

Rupture treated by us that is not permanently cured, and the truss discarded.

LOS ANGELES, CAL., March 28, 1902.

I was treated by an Eastern specialist by injections, and was under treatment by the "European Specialist in Rupture" of Los Angeles, for about one year, and followed his complicated instructions, but received no benefit, and finally no truss would hold my rupture.

In the latter part of January of this year, shortly after the Fidelity Rupture Cure was established here, I began treating with them. I was promised a cure in two months, and the promise is fulfilled, and now I am sound and well and with my truss off my rupture cannot be coughed or strained out. The cure was made while I followed my usual work at the Baker Iron Works. I had no complicated instructions to follow, but had only to present myself for a few minutes once each week. The treatment is entirely without pain or inconvenience, and I consider it a blessing to rupture sufferers.

Dr. J. B. Baker, who is in charge of the Fidelity office, asks for no money till the cure is complete, but only asks for a chance to show what can be accomplished by his method.

The above testimonial was unsolicited, and is published at my request in hopes of being a benefit to some sufferers from this dread condition. I will gladly answer all inquiries either by mail or in person.

Supreme Court Decides Against Hanley.

Los Angeles Election Contest Ended.

Finding of the Lower Court Reversed—Complications May Result.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 12,—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The Supreme Court handed down a decision today in the Patterson-Hanley contested-election case on appeal from Los Angeles, reversing the decision of the lower court. The case was remanded with directions to Judge Allen to recount the ballots to which objections were made at the to Judge Allen to recount the ballots to which objections were made at the first recount, and, combining the result with the tally of ballots formerly counted without objection, to make its findings accordingly. The detision is rendered by Chief Justice Beatty, and Justices Van Dyke and Henshaw concur. Justices Harrison, McFarland, Temple and Garoutt also concur in the main points, but take exception to some clauses.

ballot system secures secrecy of voting only when the elector desires it and has sufficient independence to insist upon it. "What was said of the so-called Australian or reform ballot could have been said with equal truth of the ballot which preceded it, or the reform ballot in its present stage of development. Under every form of ballot of which we have had any experience, the voter has been allowed—and it seems to be agreed that he must be allowed—the privilege of casting his vote for any person for any office by writing his name in the proper place. Take the ballot in its present form, what would prevent the elector from writing the name of any other elector, or even his own name, in the blank column, under title of any office as might be agreed between him and the person purchasing or coercing his vote. Such ballot, if otherwise correctly marked, would be perfectly legal, and at the same time would be perfectly identified by the selected name, by its position on the ballot, by handwriting, and by vote for persons in whose behalf it was purchased or coerced.

"I would not wish to be understood as concurring in that part, of said opinion which might be construed as commendation of or apology for our present complex imported election law."

MAKES BOARD REPUBLICAN.

James Hanley, Democrat, for almost ten years Supervisor of the Fifth District, must now step down and out, for the Supreme Court decided against him yesterday in the election contest instituted by Charles E. Patterson, Republican postmaster of Burbank.

Hanley has been serving his third term, which began on Janutry 1, 1901, and all these years has been the lone, lorn Democrat on the board, and the one hope of his district, as far as political plums for the faithful were concerned.

that he is a Republican, as a reward for hard service for his benefactor in the last campaign.

Now political wise guys say Hanley will train in the race for Sheriff.

PATTERSON'S CONTEST.

Before Patterson can occupy the seat that now is his after so many months of waiting, certain details ordered by the Supreme Court must be complied with by the Board of Supervisors, and then the board will be solidly Republican—the first time in many years.

Among other things ordered by the high tribunal is a recount, throwing out alf the ballots declared by Judge Alien to be valid at the first recount. It will be remembered that when the Supervisors canvassed the vote time-diater after the election in November, 1900, Hanley's plurality' was only 17. Patterson's contest before Judge Alien in the Superior Court reduced that number to II, the court holding that many ballots marked with a voting cross after "no nomination" in the Democratic column were valid, no sufficient distinguishing mark being proven.

It is this bunch of votes that the death, the late ex-Senator Stephen M. White.

The result, say the attorneys, will not affect any of the official acts performed by Supervisor Hanley, who has been acting de facto.

Interesting complications, however, may arise over the salary question. According to the decision of the Superme Court, Patterson has been entitled to the pay of the office—$150 a month—for the last sixteen months, but during that time Hanley has been doing the work and drawing the money. If the laborer is worthy of his hire, then Hanley has already gotten his pay and the county cannot reasonably expect him to disgorge—nor will the law so require him. But Patterson, all this time, has stood ready to perform the same service, and he says that it wasn't his fault that he couldn't do so; wherefore he thinks that he is entitled to back pay, and doubtless will soon take the necessary steps to recover the same.

In some instances of similar sort in this State—both parties have been known to ket their money.

with the taily of ballots formerly counted without objection, to make its findings accordingly. The decision is rendered by Chief Justice Bentty, and Justices Van Dyke and Henshaw concur. Justices Harrison, McFarland, Temple and Garoutt also concur in the main points, but take exception to some clauses.

The case is of special interest, as it will have a bearing on other election contests.

In scrutinizing the rejected ballots the Supreme Court is of the opinion that upon a proper recount of ballots not properly marked. Patterson would have a plurality of twelve votes, instead of Hanley's plurality of eleven. The opinion is exhaustive, covering every point of controversy.

Chief Justice Beatty refers to the present ballot system as defective, in the following language: "Certain it is that no law hitherto enacted has ever provided any effective means of preventing a voter so disposed from putting upon a perfectiy legal ballot a mark by which it can be certainly and easily identified. As remarked by Justice Temple in delivering the opinion of this court, in Jennings vs. Browni (114 Cal., 307.) 'the so-called Australian ballot system secures secrecy of voting only when the elector desires it and has sufficient independence to instruction.

FELL FROM MOVING CAR.

Hanley has been serving his third term, which began on Janutry 1, 1901, and all these years has been the lone, lorn Democrat on the board, and the one hope of his district, as far as political plums for the faithful were concerned.

Yesterday the few of his appointees round the Courthouse were looking mighty glum.

Hanley's district comprises the First and Eighth wards of Los Angeles, besides that great Antelope Valley. He was at Chatsworth Park yesterday looking after roads, when the fatal news reached Los Angeles, and he did not know that he had been officially guillotined until evening. Most of his political patronage has been dealt out to road supervisors in the country. His most conspicuous city appointee is Engineer Martins of the Eighth Ward, who got the place, in spite of the fact that he is a Republican, as a reward for hard service for his benefactor in the last campaign.

Now political wise guys say Hanley will train in the race for Sheriff.

PATTERSON'S CONTEST.

Hafore Patferson can occupy the seat for the content of the content of the car was moving at a rapid ductor called "Bonnie Brae," and, though the car was moving at a rapid west of Burlington avenue the content of the car was moving at a rapid the content of the car was moving at a rapid more car and fell heavily to the ground. Special Officer Foster of the Bonnie Brae district went to her assistance and head Capt. Roeder of Engine Company No. 11 carried her to her not of a serious nature.

THIEVES' VARIED TASTES.

Richard Page's room in the Monroe will be the car was entered Friday night while Page was asleep, and the unbidden visitor took at the home of Fred G. Chase, No. 707 Bonnie Brae street, stepped from a moving car last evening on Seventh street and received severe bruises and received ficient distinguishing mark being proven.

It is this bunch of votes that the Supreme Court invalidates, thus giving the victory to Patterson.

Many other legal objections were also raised by Patterson. He even tried to throw out the whole vote of Los Angeles Precinct 57B, for misconduct of election officers. His attorneys in the legal fight were Edwin A. Meserve, Esq., and George Beebe, Esq., while the interests of Hanley were in the hands of Messrs. Adock & Reymert, J. W. McKinley, Esq., and, until his give an evangelistic address.

BOLLARS AND HORSE SENSE."

We desire to call your attention to our profitable plan of turf investment. Money placed with us is always subject to your control, and earns a larger profit each week than any other as are investment pays in six months, or savings banks annually. Our new booklet,

"DOLLARS AND HORSE SENSE, together with statement of dividends actually."

American turf, and have had anywhere from 15 to 5 years' experience in this line exclusively. We are carrying out to the very letter EVERY PROMISE WE HAVE MADE, AS BACH AND EVERY ONE OF OUR INVESTORS WILL ATTEST. We, therefore, feel warranted in urging you to join us at agec, as the spring meetings have started, soon to be followed by the summer meetings, and everything points to busy and prosperous seasons. If you have any hesitancy as to our standing, reliability, and the fact that we do exactly as we claim, you can communicate with our references accompanying booklet. In the mean time, we assure you that any investment placed with us will be perfectly safe, and that the earnings thereon will unquestionably prove as satisfactory to you as they have to our many other patrons. TWENTY YEARS EXPERIENCE AS OWNERS AND COMMISSIONERS, and two years successful operation under present cooperative plan in which we have established a record unequaled for promptness and profit, enables us to have legitimate financial agencies report on us, in addition to banks and other recliable references. coming out to the sidewalk, is most conspicuous.

Dr. Brill is blamed by the residents for letting his property for such purposes and thus injuring the district for homes. He does not himself reside in the neighborhood, and the people say that for a paltry rental he has damaged the whole district. On Twenty-fifth street most of the residents own their homes, and yesterday one man declared his intention of moving as soon as he could sell, although he had lived there fourteen years. He said that as Dr. Brill has several vacant lots people are fearing that a saloon and slaughterhouse will follow the Chinese laundry, livery stable and blacksmith shop.

Dr. Brill is charged with being the backer of Loy Kee, and the real assailant of the ordinance, but he refused yesterday to admit he was tied that closely to the Chinaman. He vecame quite excited when the matter was broached to him. "Trouble?" he exclaimed, "I haven't any trouble on Quincy street. I get all my information about it from the newspacers. They paint the thing up as a great nuisance. But just blaze away; blaze away; I'll get even when I get ready, if I want to."

The washhouse was erected by Dr. Brill on a permit for a $200 barn. The residents say that besides being an eyesore to the pretty district with its high fence, the laundry is a nuisance because of the smell and noise. It is asserted that the chattering Chinese, habitually work until after midnight, and that sleep is impossible to those nearest by the laundry.

Deputy District-Attorney Chambers said yesterday that in his opinion the ordinance is constitutional and valid. The contention of W. S. Batchelier is that Loy Kee cannot be compelled to secure a permit, in that he is merely conducting a lawful business in a lawful way.

MOONLIGHT MIRAGE. DR. BRILL "BILED CVER."

MOONLIGHT MIRAGE.

Two Travelers on the Desert Saw a City of Homes in the Ambient Atmosphere.

How many men have seen a mirage-real desert mirage, at night? It is ot probable that the opportunity has ome to many. Capt. H. R. Burke of San Francisco elated the tale of this strange phe-nomenon to a Times reporter yester-

"Lost month," he said, "a friend and I were traveling in a wagon over the desolate part of Arizona. We were not bound on any special business. My friend having more money than health, we were merly varying the monotony a little.
"On the morning of the 18th uit. we left Belmont in Nye county, traveling southward, and the evening of the 20th we stopped on the edge of the Raiston desert. For three days it had been oppressively warm, even suitry, with cold nights. On this afternoon we had walked our horses in the still air, stifling ourselves, and nearly choking the animals with alkali dust. Truly, it was a poor thing to be called recreation. NOTHING UP was a poor thing to be called recreation.

"Even after sundown the air did not change, and we lay very uncomfortably on the ground, smoking our pipes and wondering whether or not we were in for a bad night of it. Presently my companion found himself out of matches, and arose to go to the wagon. I heard him utter a peculiar exclamation, and turning around saw him standing still and with hand-shad-leyes looking intently toward the south. Lodgings Here for All Sorts of Folks.

well, after I got up, there before me, in dim and wavering outlines, was a city. In the bright moonlight the houses ought to have been much more distinct, but I attributed it to the unsettled dust in the atmosphere. Faint lights gleamed in some of the windows. People Who Don't Want to Pay High Hotel Rates, not Obliged To.

Nothing—ten cents—fifteen dollars! Visitors to Los Angeles can obta a thousand snaky columns of dust. In a few minutes the air was clear and cool, and our little city had vanished utterly. In its place was only the sage brush plain stretching unbrokenly to the horizon.

"Had it not been for the vagueness I suppose we would have seen that our images were inverted. Yet I was not looking for it, nor he, for neither of us had any idea that moonlight was sufficiently strong to throw the image."

THEY WANT IT. Last week there was at one of the "reasted" hotels a party of four, whose Sunday dinner in the hotel café amounted to $47, and had averaged $40 a night for four nights previous. Lots of money—but they wanted what cost money, and had no objection in paying for it.

Los Angeles has been full of such on money—but they wanted what cost money, and had no objection in paying for it.

Los Angeles has been full of such people all winter, and if there were not hotels in the city which could furnish them the high-priced things which they demand, they would go elsewhere with their money. It is not good to boast that a city's hotels are all cheap, but rather to boast how many high-priced hotels can be kept full all winter—and that the high-priced people who come to them, and know what good living is, and what it costs, all say they get their money's worth. For they do so declare, despite contrary reports.

When the Duke of Newcastle made his visit here during the winter he voluntarily declared to a person not connected with the hotels that the accommodations of the hostelry where he was staying were "without a lack, and unexcelled in management in the world." He paid for his comforts right royally—but he expected to.

A distinguished woman lately here, who is connected with the St. Louis Word's Fair, and who took apartments at another hotel—and not at cheap rates—declared voluntarily to the proprietor on leaving that nothing more could be asked by a traveler than he had furnished, and that his was the first hotel west of the Mississippi where she had received her money's worth in accommodation and service, as such things are counted in the East, it was not because it was the house that had granted the lowest rates—but because it gave the money's worth, that it pleased. This charging in full for goods received is sometimes called extortion by the pan whose purse demands that he stay at a house where accommodations are just one-half cheaper, but who languishes for the purple and fine linen of the best hotel. If one pays too much for his hotel accommodations in Los Angeles it is his own fault, for if he has gone into the Angelus, Van Nuys or Westminster, he knows before he engages his apartments what he will have to pay for them, and if he can't afford them all he has to do is to go down the street and try the next hot $\frac{31}{57}$ per day, ordinary rooms, or from day for elegant apartments for two with bath—and so on up the scale; or the Westminster at about the same rate, he can do any of these four things and find nothing to how about:

(1.) Go to the numerous medium-priced hotels on Spring and Broadway, where he can live like a gentleman, but not extravagantly.

(2.) Go to the good, lower-priced family hotels and lodging-houses, the best of them in the Hill-street district, and live comfortably but very moderately at weekly rates.

(3.) Go to the Los Angeles House on North Main street and get a bed for 15 cents, two for twenty-five.

(4.) Go to one of the missions still further down town and get lodgings for nothing.

Everybody ought to find the right thing somewhere in that bunch. Here are some of the good medium-priced hotels on Spring and Broadway: Hollenbeck, capacity 300, prices $1$ to $2.50 per day, $6$ to $15.60 per week; Nadeau, capacity 300, prices the same; Van Nuys Broadway, $1$ to $7$ for apartment for two with bath? Rosslyn, capacity 300, prices $1$ to $5$ per day, $3$ to $150 per week.

Here are some of the good but cheaper houses: Natick, capacity 200, prices 50 cents to $1.50 per day, $3$ to $10 per week.

Here are some of the good but cheaper houses: Natick, capacity 200, prices $5$ cents to $1.50 per day, $3$ to $10 per week: Baltimore, canacity 100, prices $1$ per day, $6$ to $12 per day.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE.

extortion by the man whose purse demands that he stay at a house where accommodations are just one-half cheaper, but who languishes for the purple and fine linen of the best hotel.

If one pays too much for his hotel accommodations in Los Angeles it is his own fault, for if he has gone into the Angelus. Van Nuys or Westminster, he knows before he engages his apartments what he will have to pay for them, and if he can't afford them all he has to do is to go down the street and try the next hotel. There is a class of people coming in all the time who must have those high-priced accommodations, or none at all. Investigation just made at the hotels in question shows that the vacant rooms are the cheap rooms, and as the scale goes up it is correspondingly harder to secure quarters.

There is no sliding scale at the big hotels, except as there is a sliding scale in every business—old customers at any counter are always treated differently from the stranger. There is a rate for traveling men, and one for tourists; and this has caused much of the confusion. But when a man beaves the counter of the Angelus or should be considered authority on the teachings of Judaism, or that the New Testament writers should be looked to for the teachings of Christian Ity; then why should not the author of "Science and Health, With Key to the Scriptures," the text-book of Christian Science, be considered authority on the teachings of Christian Science? As Mrs. Eddy has given to the world this spiritual interpretation of the scriptures, which she has named Christian Science, is what its name and earlies and scriptures, is what its name and earlies its students to prove the truth of its teachings.

In saying "No person can take the place of the author of 'Science and Health, With discoverer and founder of Christian Science," Mrs. Eddy has but stated a self-evident fact. The context referred to the Virgin Mary and Jesus of Nazareth, and was intended to refute the erroneous assumption that any other persons could take their place, or fulfill their mission, for she own niche chindividual must in its anywonder that in fulfilling her mission, she should verify Jesus' words to His disciples, "Ye shall drink, indeed, of my cup?" And, having drunk most deeply of this cup, and triumphed over the claims of evil, it is neither "grotesque" nor "revolting;" but rather inspiring and helpful, when Mrs. Eddy's says: "No one else can drain the cup which I have drunk to the dregs, as the discoverer and teacher of Christian Science; and the wonderful success of the claims of evil, it is neither "grotesque" nor "revolting;" but rather inspiring and helpful, when Mrs. Eddy's book, "Science and Health with the decay over the claims of evil, it is neither "grotesque" nor "revolting;" but rather inspiring and helpful, when Mrs. Eddy's book, "Science and the words as the discoverer and teacher of Christian Science; neither can its neither and the server of the blook over the claims of evil, it is neither "

what the Book says.

Following is an extract from Mrs.
Eddy's book, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," fifty-first edition, page 400, reprinted without comment in the "Care of the Body" department of The Times March 30, 1902;
"Until the advancing age admits the efficacy and supremacy of mind, it is better to leave the adjustment of broken bones and dislocations to the fingers of a surgeon, while you confine yourself chiefly to mental reconstruction, and the prevention of infammation or protracted confinement. Christian Science is always the most skillful surgeon, but surgery is the branch of its healing which will be last demonstrated. However, it is bust just to say that the author has already in her possession well-authenticated records of the cure, by herself and others, through mental surgery alone, of dislocated hip joints and spinal vertebrae.
"The time approaches when mental mind will forsake its corporesi, structural and material basis, when immortal mind, and its formations, will be apprehended in science, and material thought will not interfere with spiritual facts. Man is indestructible and eternal. Some time it will be learned that mind constructs the body, and with its own materials. Hence no breakage or dislocation can really occur. You say that accidents, injuries and diseases kill man; but this is not true. The life of the body is mind.
The material body manifesis only what mortal mind admits, whether it be a broken bone, disease or sin."

There should have been no opposition which was adopted by unanimous vote of Women's Clubs, which will meet in Los Angeles next month. This con-vention is of special importance, be-cause it will bring to the city a great number of the most intelligent, highly-cultivated and enterprising from all parts of the United They are women of high standing in the communities where they reside, and statements they may make on their return will carry great weight. EL CAMINO REAL.

Mention has been made on several occasions in The Times of the interesting project upon which a Pasadena association has been working for a number of years, to construct a model highway, connecting the various missions of California, following as closely as possible the route of the old road, or as possible the route of the old road, or trail, which connected these missions in early days. It is proposed to bring this proposition prominently before the blennial convention of women's clubs in Los Angeles next month.

El Camino Real has been indorsed by the city of Pasadena, the Board of Supervisors of Los Angeles county, and the State Bureau of Highways, and has been followed with interest by the wise Pacific highway, whose "scientific Commerce exhibit of the scheme worthy fact, as showing the broad-minded and liberal spirit which charfore the sixth biennial, on the evening of May 7, by the Art Committee of the offered to open their houses for the entertainment of Mrs. Ruffin, the in-telligent and highly-cultivated colored woman who is the involuntary cause ter of the exhibit will be the dotted lines of the road itself, shown in the original map, bound into the "Life of of all this racket among the women's clubs of the United States. She had to go out each day to work, leaving me where she roomed. My play-ground was the streets, and I can remember how I fell into ways which might have landed me in jail by this, but a kind lady, knowing how we were fixed, took me to her home, and took care of me all the day, so that I had her children to play with. I is ow the blessing of taking me from the streets, and I am now earning my $13 a week, with prospects for more, and getting on in the world, and am now supporting my dear aged mother. Fowler, manager of such institutes for the agricultural department of the State University. In company with Prof. Fowler I drove through a large alkali district, and was informed by him that great fortunes could be made by buying such lands at low price and making them productive through the neutralizing effects of a judicious supply of gypsum.

A word about coloring olives. The naturally "black" olives are not simply ripe olives. "Green" olives may be ripe. The black olives—naturally so are the Mission olives, a distinct variety. Probably the oldest Mission olives in the State are at the head of Mission Valley, seven miles northeast of the city of San Diego; several hundred of these, bearing trees were planted by the Mission fathers in 1767, upon the founding of the mission.

This at least was the experience of a side of the largest shipping and had provided wraps and comforts for such a contingency. Among his fellow-passengers was a young girl who suffered intensely from the cold and seemed crushed at the prospect before her. Seeing her pathetic plight, Mr. B—gallantly insisted on enveloping her in his own wraps and making her share his other creature comforts, and by his delicate aftentions and bright spirits quickly succeeded in making her thoroughly happy.

When, nearly twelve hours later, Mr. B—left the train, he induced his fair fellow-passenger to retain his wraps to the end of her journey, and gave her an address to which to return them. The sequel may be told in a few words. With the returned wraps came a letter full of gratitude from the girl's father and with a pressing invitation to spend a few days as his guest. The impression the young man created on his host, a wealthy shipowner, was so favorable that it led to the offer of a clerkship in his office, and within a few years the gallant clerk had entered into a double partnership with the pretty traveler and with her father. Some years ago an abnormally-heavy snowfall brought a substantial fortune to a village carpenter in Cumberland. Opposite the carpenter lived of his secretive habits. In January, 1875, there came a snowstorm such as the oldest inhabitant could not remember, and a hurricane drifted the snow so deeply against the houses that the very doors were blocked from view. The carpenter observed that his miserly neighbor made no effort to cut a way through the snow, and fearing that something was wrong, he set to work with a spade and dug his way through to the front door. On entering the house he found the man unconscious, and evidently in extremis, but by careful nursing succeeded in restoring him. The cold and starvation, however, triumphed in the end, but not before the miser had made as will leaving all his fortune—amounting to over £12,000—to this Samaritan neighbor.

It was a very fortunate snowfall which, fifty years ago, drove a young man named Blair, tramping in search of work, to ask for shelter at a cottage a few miles from Troy. The tenant of the cottage was a young widow, whose cupboard was already hitfully bare; but, such as it was, she placed it at the service of her unexpected guest, and with motherly solicitude made him comfortable until he was able to resume his journey. The incident had almost escaped her memory, when nearly twenty years later she again had a visit from her guest—now on the way to one of the largest fortunes ever amassed, even in the United States. The millionaire, as J. D. Blair, even then was, had come to thank her for her hospitality to a friendless boy, and to ask her to accept an annuity of a thousand dollars for the remainder of her life.

CRIPPITH PARK VIEWED BY CITY OFFICIALS.

PLANS FOR IMPROVING THE LARGE TRACT DISCUSSED.

Spot Rich in Sylvan Beauties, but Now Somewhat Inaccessible Because of a Lack of Roads and Trails-Park May Be Systematically Platted.

Griffith Park—one of the largest municipal pleasure grounds in the world —was visited yesterday by the Park Commission and members of the Counoil. Col. G. J. Griffith, who deeded the magnificent tract of 3015 acres to the city, more than five years ago, was the guest of the occasion. Because of yesterday's inspection of the hills and dales of this sylvan retreat t is probable that an annual approcause of yesterday a inspection of the hills and dales of this sylvan retreat it is probable that an annual appropriation for the improvement of the park will be included in the budget. Shortly after 10 o'clock yesterday morning the party started from the City Hall in a six-horse tallyho for the drive to the park. Besides Col. Griffith the party included Commissioners C. B. Dickson, M. J. McGarry, J. C. Cribb and James Russell; Councilmen W. H. Pierce, George P. McLain and Frank Walker; Park Superintendent Mendenhall, Secretary H. L. Hopkins, Water Overseer George D. Dessell, Deputy Auditor Louis Schwaebe, M. L. Starin and reporters. The trip was made by Elysian Park, where the nursery department was viewed. A pleasant drive along the Chaves and Los Felis roads brought the party to the boundary of the park a little before noon. From a ridge overlooking the river Col. Griffith explained to the city officials his wishes regarding improvements.

plained to the city officials his wishes regarding improvements.

It will be recalled that about two weeks ago Col. Gri th sent a letter to the Council asking that steps be taken to improve the park in accordance with the conditions of his bequest. In the deed by which the city acquired the property March 5, 1898, Col. Griffith stated that he wished to make the gift while in the full vigor of life, that he might enjoy with his neighbors its beauties and pleasures. Such a small amount of money has been expended that the donor does not think the city has lived up to its trust. In his letter he said:

"Cannot the City Fathers, acting in behalf of the people, expend a modest annual sum to make the beautiful meadows and cahous and the commanding heights of the park accessible to the lovers of nature?"

In explanation of his letter, Col.

the park, George N. Lockwood, and the men under him. Beneath one of the the oaks the foreman had provided a bountful repast of paiatable comeetibles, and full justife was done to the meal by the hungry party. Col. Griffith enlivened the occasion by his happy witticisms and the recital of incidents in the early life on the Los Felis (The Happy) ranch.

After the edibles had been disposed of members of the party set out to applore the sylvan glades and cañons. Councilman Pierce, Dr. Dickson, Maj. Starin, Harry Hopkins and a reporter climbed to the top of "Griffith's Altar," a high sentinel rock overlooking the cañon. From this coign of vantage a splendid view of the San Fernando Valley is obtained, although it is said that a much finer one can be had from the top of another peak, 170e feet above sea level. Almost at one's test is spread out a beautiful panorama. The fertile valley, traversed by the limpid stream, is hemmed in to the north by the titanic mountains in their garb of sun-burnt brown. The grain farms, restasgular pieces of tilled land, can be clearly traced by the track of the ploughshare, while the orchards with their rows of trees, resemble nothing so much as the dots and lines on coordinate paper. To the south, the higher elevations of the park, mantled in green verdure and dotted with oaks and rare trees, present a pleasing sight. Across the cafon comes the

SUMMARY OF THE DAY.

Yesterday the Park Commission and members of the Council, accompanied by Griffith J. Griffith, visited Griffith Park, in order to ascertain from observation what opportunities are offered for improvement.

Judge Shaw made an encouraging ruling yesterday, in the Eighth Ward gas fight, and will tomorrow pass upon the validity of the municipal gas ordinance.

The Supreme Court of California will open its April session in Los Angeles tomorrow afternoon.

The election of the park are the Crystal Spring, and at this point 540 miles of watershed supplying, it is estimated, about 20,000 miner's inches of water converges. The main supply water system are adjacent to the park. Yesterday Water Overseer Pessell had a force of forty men clearing out the main ditch that supplies all the parks of the city. They have been at work six days, and have cleaned thirteen miles of ditch. The parks have suffered considerably from the lack of water, and yesterday afternoon the gates were raised. This morning the ditch will again be flowing full.

At 3:30 o'clock the party started for the city, the return trip being made by way of Vermont avenue and Temple city, the return trip being made by way of Vermont avenue and Temple city, the return trip being made by way of Vermont avenue and Temple way of Vermont avenue and Temple city, the return trip being made by way of Vermont avenue and Temple way of Vermont avenue and Temple city, the return trip being made by way of Vermont avenue and Temple way of

Superintendent Mendenhall has already planted several hundred trees, and the beginning has been made.
Commissioner Dickson believes that the board should employ an expert landscape artist to plat the park in order that any work that may be done shall be part of a comprehensive scheme for the improvement of the whole property. A discussion of this question is probable at an early session of the Park Commission.

Mayor as an Angler.

Mayor as an Angler.

Mayor Snyder went fishing Friday, not for the gubernatorial nonination, but for fish. He successfully disproved the theory that Friday is an unlucky day. Even the regular fishermen had to yield the palm to the Mayor. He caught the largest mackerel of the season at Redondo. According to the Mayor it was something less than six feet long and weighed a trifle unier 100 pounds. The Mayor caught ten fine fish in all, but he says they were not all as large as the one mentioned, Last night, Mayor Snyder refused to state night Mayor Snyder refused to state whether he uses the same methods in catching fish that he does in catching votes; but to say the least, he as-tonished the natives.

He Wanted Murphy.

He Wanted Murphy.

A most pathetic incident occurred in the Tax Collector's office yesterday. A brother of a local official came into the office and asked for Francis Murphy. Indicationa of the intemperate use of whisky were not lacking in the man's face, and there was a tremor in his voice as he said:

"I must find Francis Murphy. I want to take the pledge. He is the only man that I can promise and keep the promise. Where is he?"

Collector White told him that Murphy was at Long Beach or San Pedro. With tears in his eyes the man exclaimed:

"I'm ruined if I don't find him. Drink is driving me mad. I've got only a dollar, but I am going to find Murphy if it takes the last cent I have."

And the last seen of him he was taking the car for the depot.

Protests Damage Award.

E. C. Shipley yesterday filed a protest with the City Clerk against the award of damages made to him by the Temple-street grade commission. Shipley's property is at the intersection of Temple and Figueroa streets, and he alleges that he will be left twelve feet below the street, The board awarded him 3145.20 as damages, but he believes that $1250 would be nearer the proper figure.

Off for the North.

Councilman Lauder and H. L. Hopkins of the park department will leave today for the north. Lauder is going to the San José convention, and although Hopkins alleges that he is bound for San Francisco to inspect Golden Gate Park, it is suspected that he will find time to stop over at the Garden City.

AT THE COURTEDISS. TICTORY FOR CITY IN BIG GAS BATTLE.

DENIES INTUNCTION AGAINST POLICE.

Fight Still Raging and Legality of peal of Criminal Case from Pelice

Fighters against the gas works in the Eighth Ward are encouraged by a ruling of Judge Shaw yesterday in the case of Mrs. Caroline W. Dobbins against the city of Los Angeles, where in she seeks to enjoin the defendant in she seeks to enjoin the defendant forever from interfering with her plans. Her gas factory is in course of construction, but for the last two weeks work has been stopped by order of the court, and prior to that time the police were kept busy arresting workmen who were violating the city ordinance prohibiting gas works within certain limits.

It was ordered by the court that the temporary restraining order granted to her be dissolved; that the city's demurrer to the complaint be sustained, and that judgment be entered in favor of the defendant on the demurrer and for costs. The city's motion, however, to strike out certain portions of the complaint was denied.

In making the above order Judge Shaw handed down no written opinion, but afterwards stated to a Times reporter that he had based his course on the law as laid down in a recent decision by Judge Wellborn of the District Court. It seems that a court of equity more people do not visit it. Along the five miles of river frontage there are many canons which afford fine picnic grounds. All the surroundings are redolent of early life is California, than which there is no more romantic or picturesque chapter in the history of the world.

Just at the foot of "Deer" Cafion there is a barn almost in ruins. It has partly toppled over, and large beams have been set to brace it. This was formerly a retreat of Trabucia Vasques and his gang of seventeen notorious desperadoes. This gang of robbers and thieves terrorized the country for nearly twenty years before its leader was captured and hanged. They used to picket their horses in one of the nearby cafions and steal into the rendexvous. The farmer who owned the ranch was afraid of his life, and he always gave them the best the place afforded. Be it said to the credit of Vasquez that he always paid liberally for such service. The place is fitted with port holes in the upper story, and here many exciting fights with the Sheriff of Los Angeles county took place.

A little further up the valley is the old Los Fellz ranch house, where Leon Baldwin, the first gringo owner of the ranch, lived. The place was always noted for that open-handed hospitality which characterized the early settlers, and many prominent Californians have here been wined and dined. It is just toutside the borders of the park, and on the 250 acres which Ccl. Griffith re-was convicted by Justice Austin last week of violating the gas ordinance and was fined $100. On Friday an at-tempt was made to have him before was not in custody and the matter was dismissed. This appeal has now been effected and Judge Shaw will hear it wade state. Miss Jennie Arm-strong asks for the probate of the will of her uncle, Robert Wade, who died in the city on Wednesday, leaving a cash estate of about $14,000. Petitioner, who lives at No. 509 North Figueroa street, lives at No. 509 North Figueroa street, is named as executrix of the will, and is bequeathed all the estate except $4500, which is given to Miss Sarah Vanderpool, another niece, who lives in Troy, N. The importance of the appeal lies in that fact that now, after many legal maneuvers, the gas ordinance is at last before the courts properly to be tested. DAMAGE SUIT. Edgar Roberts, > HIGHWAY COMMISSION. PLAN OF WORK OUTLINED.

The Highway Commission of Los Angeles County is the name by which the committee to name roads, etc., appointed by the Board of Supervisors, is to be known. The Executive Comis to be known. The Executive Committee, with C. B. Boothe, chairman, was empowered to complete and perfect the organization, and it has already held two sessions, appointed subcommittees, devised a partial plan of work, and is gathering necessary information to enable it intelligently to enable it intelligently to a general scheme of roadcarry out a general scheme of road-Ex-City Engineer F. H. Olmsted has been appointed chairman of the sub-committee on maps and engineering and is gathering the data which will enable him to construct a county may enable him to construct a county map showing all the roads in use. He will start with a road running southeasterly toward Santa Ana, and call in the services of A. L. Bancroft, originator of the scheme, and Dr. O. S. Barnum, president of the Bicycle Association to formulate a pian of blocking and numbering that line of road.

A sub-committee on road-naming has been formed, consisting of T. P. Lukens of Pasadena, who has traveled over more than a thousand miles of Los Angeles county roads, as chairman. He will have associated with him on that committee C. B. Boothe of Los Angeles, and H. Goodwin of Hollywood. It will be their duty to examine the system of roads leading from the city of Los Angeles in all directions towards the extreme limits of the county, arrange them, where practicable, into continuous lengths, provide them with suitable names, and have them properly registered under those names. The result of their work will be submitted to a general meeting of the Highway Commission, consisting of thirty-two members, representing all parts of the county, for their ratification, and those members will be consulted in all the preliminary stages of the work.

ratification, and those members will be consuited in all the preliminary stages of the work.

Charles Cassatt Davis has been appointed chairman of a sub-committee on law and ordinances. He will compile the legislative and Federal enactments relating to our highways, and ascertain the present status of existing roads, and what measures are necessary to perfect or improve the titles. It has come to the knowledge of the committee that some of the supposed public highways have never been dedivated to the county, and are used only by the sufferance of private parties.

A sub-committee on State and Federal cooperation was appointed—with J. L. Starr as chairman, to ascertain what State aid may be looked for in a general scheme of fhighway improvement, and also what methods are used by the United States postal service in operating their system of rural delivery, and how the plans of the commission might contribute to facilitating that service and better accommodate the people living along country roads. Any information or suggestions bearing on the work of the commission may be sent to the gentlemen above named, or to the servicary. William H. Mrs. Dingwall is a widow, her husneeded no longer the nurse went away and was not seen again until two weeks ago. He told Neal he was destitute and was given a temporary home in the same house with the widow Dingwall. He seemed to be widow Dingwall. He seemed to be enamored of her, and persisted in thrusting his attentions upon her. He even proposed marriage, but she told him she loved him not.

Yesterday morning he called at Mrs. Dingwall's room while she was sewing, and again voiced his love. She wearied of his talk and went out in the yard to speak to a woman friend. When the dressmaker returned to her room she

OFFICIAL DOINGS.

It is a well-known fact, and a perfectly reasonable one, that the glove and shoe, if worn too tight, interefere with the proper circulation of the

The shoe and the glove, however, when worn too fight, do not make half the trouble caused by the tight corset. In spite of all that is said to the contrary, I believe in the corset, although the slim woman looks much better without it. But for the person inclined to be stout I know the corset to be a friend indeed. Such a woman is apt to lay on more fat over the stomach, and if the corset is worn constantly, it keeps the too solid flesh from accumulating too rapidly.

But, like the shoe and the glove, in its use the corset has been much abused. What should be used merely to give the waistline a trim appearance, often is drawn so tight that displacement of the female organs results, and causes the woman untold agony. Every one has in her list of acquaintances some one whose wasp-like waist was the pride of her young womanhood. I know such a person who, when she was going to the theater or reception, would draw her corset even a little tighter. By and by she began to have pains in the side which seemed almost unbearause. They came at first at these evening affairs, when she should have been enjoying herself; but by and by the pains were always there-even when she did not don the corset at all. She had brought on female trouble by her recklessness, an illness that kept her in misery much of the time. She finally went to the hospital, and there the nurse told me it was an actual fact that the various feminine organs had taken an unnatural and deformed shape as the result of tight lacing.

Bearing-down pains and dizziness, from which so many women suffer, are often the result of wearing clothing that is too tight.

Of course, every young woman who laces too tight realizes sooner or later that her pains are the result of the tight clothing, and loosens it, and then wonders why her pain doesn't cease. She doesn't understand that the displacement of the female organism is not a trouble that will cure itself. By and by she says she cannot see that wearing her clothing loosely helps her any, and she tries to wear them tight once more but cannot do so. Often inflammation has set in and enlarged the organs and the slim figure that was once her pride is no more. The whole trouble will not cure the trouble caused by wearing clothes too tight.

RAILWAY WON. The damage suit brought by Mrs. 1da E. Cossentine of Pasadena and six children against the Southern California Railway Company by reason of the killing of husband and father, Samuel Cossentine, at Azusa in May, 1898, was decided by a jury in Judge Conrey's court yesterday in favor of the railway company. Cossentine was killed at the Azusa depot by a backing freight while waiting for a passenger train. When a woman finds she is beginning to have pains in her side, when she gets dizzy from causes she does not understand, when the bearingdown pains are so frequent she hardly seems able to walk, let her take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. It is the only thing that will help her. There is no use in her going tof the doctor. He has no sympathy with a woman who, through not understanding, has brought these troubles upon herself. Half the time he doesn't believe in them, and nuts a woman off with something that may give her temporary relief, but will be of no lasting help. But Mrs. Pinkham has made a study of this matter for years, and her medicine is just the thing that is needed to restore the nerves to a healthy condition, relieving and healing the inflammation.

Women suffering from feminine troubles always have a desire to wear unnecessarily loose clothing. They think it will relieve the pain. They do not stop to consider that removing the pressure will not cure. The female troubles get no better, and day after day a little of that trim look, so es-

TWO INSANE. Frank E. Delaney, It years old, whose home is on Central avenue, was sent to the insane asylum at Highland yesterday. Overstudy in school may have caused his present unfortunate condition. John D. Burns, a barber, formerly of Smartville, Cai., was also adjudged insane. He hears voices and imagines that God has ordered him to kill himself. troubles get no better, and day after day a little of that trim look, so essential to woman's best appearance, is lost.

The woman who cannot stand it unless her clothes are so loose she barely feels them, may make up her mind that her feminine organs need immediate attention. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will put her in a normal condition, and as a result the figure will resume its natural proportions. If every woman would take Mrs. Pinkham's medicine when her side or back aches, or when she has an uncomfortable, bloated feeling, we would have feder sliquely middle-axed woman who as they get and the standard of the stand her side or back aches, or when she has an uncomfortable, bloated feeling, we would have fewer slouchy, middle-aged women, who, as they say, cannot stand moderately tight clothing. Instead of wearing clothes that are looser and more slovenly in appearance every day, they might, by the use of Mrs. Pinkham's medicine, get their shapely bodies again. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will cure the female troubles, will take away the pain, will relieve the inflammation. I do hope that all women who are suffering any of the effects of tight clothing, or who are ill with any distinctly feminine trouble, will understand how exactly this medicine Old Man Dunbar, Whose Dog Was Shot, Testifies in the Police Court H. The killing of Dunbar's dog has so aroused public sentiment, that there was a tone time talk of making trouble for the detective.

As a matter of fact, the officer who shot the dog is one of the most tender-hearted fellows who ever lived, and no doubt suffered tortures of remose before his revolver barrel was cold, for killing the old man's pet.

Picnic Suppers of a Century Ago.

As the expression of a picnic supper is become so fashionable, though it is much oftener used than understood, it may be necessary to explain it for the information of many of our readers. A picnic supper consists of a variety of dishes. The subscribers to the entertainment have a bill of fare presented to them, with a number against each dish. The lot which he draws obliges him to furnish the dish marked against it, which he either takes with him in his carriage or sends by a servant. The proper variety is preserved by the talents of the maltre d'hotel who forms the bill of fare. As the cookery is furnished by so many people of fashion, each strives to excel: and thus a picnic supper not only gives rise to much pieasant mirth, but generally can boast of the refinement of the art.—

RAILROAD BUILDING.

Work of grading the Imperial & Gulf Railroad from Imperial to Imperial Innction commenced on Friday the 11th. This means that in the near future trains will be running to Imperial. It also means that lands so near a market that will produce such crops as are now growing in the Imperial settlements must necessarily soon command $50 per acre, while $100 per acre will be the quotation a little later. Imperial will be the present terminus of the road. It will be the leading town of the settlements, and those who have followed the tide of events are quietly picking up lots in the town and ten acre tracts adjoining. A word to the wise is sufficient.

Field of barley grown in Imperial Settlements. Stands on an average of 5 feet in height, will pro duce from 3} to 4 tons per acre, worth at least $20 per ton. Property of A. T. Plath.

MAGNIFICENT CROPS.

It may seem a little extravagant to some to hear the statement that no where else in California can be seen such crops as are now growing at Imperial. If you have any friends or know of anyone who has visited Imperial lately, ask them what they think of it? Mr. Plath, of Imperial, has a 20 acre tract of barley that beggars description. Several weeks ago he was offered $40.09 per acre for the crop as it stood in the field. He will get at least $60.00 per acre, likely more, there are others. Why farm in a country where you get poor returns when there is a place like Imperial. It won't cost you much to see this country, and if you want to get a farm and a good one you will find it here.

REMEMBER, you can get good land with an abundance of water from $13.50 to $20.00 per acre, and on easy terms. We have some very choice pieces which have been filed on and can be bought at reasonable prices, also town lots in Imperial and Silsbee, and 5 and 10-acre tracts adjoining these towns. He was canonized by Pope Alexander in the eightenth century.

After his canonization the relics of St. Vincent de Paul were placed in a gold case and rested in the chapel of st. Lazar, Parls, where they remained during the eighteenth century. After the destruction of the Bastile agents of the government, seeking sold and sliver, confiscated the golden case which held the relics, but left the body to the priests, and in 1806 the relics which held the relics, but left the body to the priests, and in 1806 the relics which held the relics, but left the body to the priests, and in 1806 the relics of n. Material is coming right along now for the Pacific Electric Company's lines. C. W. Smith thinks there will be no further delay in getting the Pasadena cut-off in operation. The line to Monrovia will soon be under way and will be completed before the end of the current year. South of Pasadena this road will branch for Alhambra and San Gabriel, and this, too, will be in operation in six or seven months. At San Gabriel this line passes behind the Mission Church and runs on to a point in the road leading up north from the Southern Pacific depot, where it stops. This point is near the southeast corner of Maj. Jones's orange grove, or what used to be the Tallant place, where Spencer Sewell lived.

catarrh, which in time creates a hacking cough, and nature, in her endeavors to get rid of the tubercules, sets up an inflammation, matter is secreted and the tubercules is softened. It then comes to a head or supurates, and the matter is dis-charged into the nearest air tubes. This the sufferer raises nd allays the cough to some extent, but as the air cells fill with tuberculer matter the blood cannot circulate perfectly through the lungs, hence it becomes more impure for want of air, which lessens nature's power to throw off the disease until at last the disease becomes more general, the cough gets greater, followed by night sweats and bleeding of the lungs, finally the sufferer gets weaker and weaker, until death ends this dreadful disease. Smith Bros.' S. B. CATARRH CURE acts on the glands and mucous surfaces of the system through the blood. It promotes the action of absorbants, then removes the deposited tubercules and speedily allays the cough and cures catarrh, no matter where located. It cures night sweats when all other remedies fail.

One of many testimonials received by Smith Bros., from Mr. L. R. Payne, vice-president of the Fresno Steam Baking Co. Messrs. Smith Bros., (Chemists.) Fresno, Cal. Gentiemen:—I desire in this manner to extend to you my deep appreclation of your S. B. Catarrh Cure, for the remarkable and satisfactory results obtained in my case by its use. For three years I had a continuous hacking cough and soreness in my throat and chest, which was gradually growing worse, until it became an effort for me to converse. In fact, I was growing worse, until it became an effort for me to converse. In fact, I was quite unable to carry on a conversation without stopping to cough and expectorate every few minutes. My friends advised me to take a change of climate, which I did, but apparently with bad results, as my throat became mere affected and lesing both flesh and appetite. I began taking various remedies, none of which helped me in the least. My cough was becoming more tenacious, causing a hoarseness, and finally losing my role entirely. My attention was directed to your S. B. preparation, which I began taking last winter. The relief was almost instantaneous. After taking one bottle my cough and throat irritation ceased, and I seen noticed the tonic and vitalizing effect of the remedy. Six bottles proved an absolute specific in my case. I have gained forty pounds in weight and have never felt better in my life, all of which I accredit to your S. B. Catarrh Cure, thus prompting me to most heartily recommend same, believing it will do all that is claimed for it.

Yeurs very truly,

S. B. Catarrh Cure cures Catarrh of the head, ear, nose, throat, stomach, kidneys, bowels and biadder.

It gives almost instant relief and removes the cause of catarrhal headaches and neuralgia.

It reduces all catarrhal inflammation of the evstachian tubes and cures deafness.

It cures catarrh of the nose, chronic or ulcerative. It cures catarrh of the throat, and restores loss of voice

It never fails to cure dyspepsia, sour stomach, loss of appetite, bad taste in the mouth and offensive breath. It cares catarrh of the bowels and restores them to a natural, healthy action and condition.

It is a positive uric acid solvent and removes the cause of all kidney troubles, pain in the back and Bright's Disease and Rheumatism

By neutralizing and expelling the excess of uric acid it removes the cause of inflamation of the bladder, which causes you to urisate too frequently, and to get up in the night often.

It removes that tired feeling by expelling the impurities from the blood. It is a great tonic and bracer, and with no bad after effects.

Doctors and druggists regard it as the only positive internal remedy on the market that will ABSOLUTELY CURE CATARRH. For sale by all druggists.

My trusses never wear out. They fit in the first place and there is no reason why they should not continue to give comfort always, but my guarantee is behind them, and I am ready at any time to readjust them to your satisfaction.

Often times these trusses enable Nature to cure the rupture and some of my patients have discarded their trusses long ago, although I recommend them to continue their use.

What would you think of a fakir who "cures" a man, takes his money as having completed the cure, and then tells him to continue wearing his truss. I can prove that this has been done, not ONCE but many times and that I have fitted trusses to hundreds of people after they had paid capsiderable sums to be "cured."

My guarantee is that I will make you comfortable. will retain your rupture perfectly and give Nature the best possible chance to make a cure.

The Skilled Physician is Nature's Helper

Gentle Influences More Effective Than Force. Men's Diseases Permanently Cured by Dr. Joslen.

I treat men only, and treat only those diseases constituting my specialty.

the effort to establish health continues.

The skilled physician is nature's helper. He must not attempt to be more than a helper. He must work with nature, and in direct accordance with nature's plans. His failing to do this can but bring on, if I may call it such, a three-cornered combat. His blows at the foe strike nature as well, and both strike back. His treatment not only fails, but it becomes the equivalent of an additional aliment which nature must seek to correct. Nature abhors drastic measures, She is seldom in sympathy with force. Physicians are comprehending this more fully than ever before, and as a result the advancement in medical science is toward the adoption of mild and gentle influences.

cal science is toward the adoption of mild and gentle influences.

For fifteen years I have treated men's diseases exclusively. I have given all my thought to this one class of allments. My endeavor has been to acquire accurate scientific knowledge concerning them. I realized the general lack of such knowledge, and the impossibility of successful treatment without it. I am confident that I have ascertained nature's requirements in all diseases peculiar to men. My original, safe and strikingly distinctive methods of treatment meet these requirements. The remarkable cures effected prove that they meet them perfectly. The thousands of cases I have treated without a single failure or undesirable result, afford a magnificient example of what may be accomplished through helping nature, and forcibly argue the scientific correctness of the present trend toward less harsh and drastic measures in the treatment of disease.

"Weakness"

Dr. O. C. Joslen, M.D.

Due to a Simple Cause, These functional disorders commonly termed "weak-commonly termed "weakness" are readily curable when treated upon scientific principles and with a full understanding as to their cause.

In an experience of fifteen years, during which I have treated thousands of cases, this ailment has yielded to my treatment promptly and completely. The truth is that "weakness" is not a nervous disorder, nor is it due to any impoverished condition or lack of vitality, excepting, of course, cases of general debility, where the entire system is broken down. Practically every patient who comes to me to be treated for this disorder is strong and robust which is strong and robust, which is evidence of the correctness of the statement just made, and the statement just made, and proves conclusively the folly of resorting to stimulants, tonics and electro-medical combinations, etc., which can only excite the functions temonly excite the functions temporarily, to the positive detriment of the real ailment. The prostate gland, being the vital center of the sexual system, and very sensitive to abnormal influences, becomes chronically swollen and inflamed as a result of early dissipation, improperly-treated contracted diseases, strain, injury or other cause, and the condition is manifested by disordered sexual functiona. Therefore the "weakness" is only a symptom of prostatic trouble, and is not the condition demanding treatment. My method of curing "weakness" is to restore the tender

My method of curing "weak-ness" is to restore the tender and swollen prostate to its normal state. I employ local measures only, and the re-suits I obtain are prompt, complete and permanent. Like results can be had from no other treatment, because no other can be in accordance with scientific requirements.

Disorders.

Often the condition appearing to be the chief disorder is only a reflex aliment resulting from some other disease. The triennial convention of the Mili-tary Order of Foreign Wars of the United States, National Commandery, will be held at Independence Hall in Philadelphia on Wednesday next. Many representative officers of the army and navy will attend this convention, and twenty-two State commanderies are expected to be represented by delegates. A banquet is to be given to the National Commandery at Hotel Believue by the Pennsylvania Commandery, at which speeches will be made by prominent officers of the order present.

One Kind of Straw.

One group of speculators congregated in the Waldorf Cafe contained J. J. Hill. They were discussing the recent success of a new operator in Wall street, and one observed, rather scornfully:

"He acted on impulse, like a drowning man catching at a straw."

Mr. Hill nodded assent. Then he said:
"He climbed aboard that straw, and was received by the skipper with deference, while the crew, in trim array, saluted. Music filled the air when they dined him—and the sea turned out to be champagne. That was the kind of a straw it was."—[New York Times.

The Health of a Manly Man

Why will not all men insist upon having it, when it is so easy to get and to keep. Some men are eaten alive by tape-worms, others wander hopelessly for years dying slow deaths from bowel disease.

"After taking fron Cacaretas, there came on the seems a very unexpected visitor in the shape of a spew-worm eighteen feet long at least, white; a sure caused my bad health for three years."

— Geo. W. Bowles, Baird, Miss. "After taking Cascarets I have had a natural relief without taking medicine of any sort during the past two weeks. This had not occurred for years. The past two weeks. This had not occurred for years. The past two weeks. This had not occurred for years. The past two weeks. This had not occurred for years. The years is immediate relief."—Thos. Gillard, Eighn, IL without great relief and feel that I must send you my personal recommendation."

Business as well as social life of today is one of strain and effort, and the struggle for existence in competition makes life a fight day in day out, in which care of body, nerves, blood is more or less neglected. Men wonder what's wrong with them. No man can stand such unnatural conditions unless he counteracts them by using Cascarets Candy Cathartic, causing regularity of body in spite of irregularity of habits. A man who "feels bad" should take Cascarets, find out what's wrong and

I have seen some of the elaborate waistbands worn by gentlemen of note, and while admiring their elegance and extravagance of material, yet find room for wonder that men can feel comfortable in girdles so compressed and ladylike. A corset of blue satin, sent back for repairs, must have been magnificent when new. The thousands of silver stimples penering its surface recent when new. The thousands of sliver spiangles peppering its surface reminded one of pantopime dress, and I was told that many yards of valuable lace had been taken off to send to the cleaners; the corset would eventually be sent back to the owner as good as new. The wearer of this handsome thing was no believer in tight lacing, the size of the waist being quite sensible, while formidable boning had altogether been ignored.

What did I think of a shell-pink creation intended for a young clubman of spendthrift habits? As a work of art it was pretty—a specimen of dantiness such as a society belle would adore. Rich embroidery encrusted the fronts—a design of pendant daffodils worked in thick silk, the pale yellow flowers and gray-green stalks harmonizing well with the pink foundation. Such articles seem to fairy-like for wear, but how a man can with placid bearing annex himself to a thing so ephemeral as the corset described is a matter beyond average comprehension. The pink satin belt (to use a more masculine term) was about twelve inches in depth, the waist only twenty-one inches, yet the intended wearer stood

SEVENTEEN YEARS UNDER-SEVENTEEN YEARS UNDER-GROUND.

Each individual of the great cleada army to visit us this year is seventeen Each individual of the great cleada army to visit us this year is zeventeen years old, a span of life which a cat or a dog could but with difficulty attain, and in which a generation of mankind would be more than possible. In the year 1885 these myriads of insects entered the earth, and since then they have not beheld the light of day. In June of that year Mother Cicada industriously planted her hundreds of eggs in the green twigs of the trees, while Father Cicada sat close by and merrily sang to her his ditty of love. A few weeks later the ant-like baby cicades escaped from their shells, fell lightly to the ground and quickly burrowed out of sight, forming for themselves liltle subterranean chambers or cells adjoining the sappy rootlets of the parent tree, in the fresh juices of whose twigs the producing eggs had been deposited for nourishment.

In this underground cell, at first the size of a small grain of bird shot but gradually growing with its occupant, each cleada has remained, within two feet of the surface, through winter and summer burled from light, air and sun, and protected in a manner from cold and frost. It has lived thus in absolute solitude, knowing only its moist earth chamber, separated from its brothers and sisters, rarely changing its position save as some accident to the nourishing rootlet has necessitated its seeking another. In this sepulchral published these billions of waiting clcadas are within about a quarter of an inch of the surface of the soil in the twenty States specified. Each is now exactly the color and shape of the brown "locust shells" commonly seen adhering to trees and left there almost each year by remnants of once formidable armies, now widely scattered or exterminated. In other words, the clcada waiting today just beneath the, surface soil—waiting for some mysterious signal to be sounded by Nature—might be mistaken for a big brown

Just before coming to the surface this wingless, underground cicada has been known in many localities to erect been known in many localities to erect odd little mud chimneys, projecting sometimes six or eight inches above the surface. These are constructed of soft pellets of clay brought from below and pressed firmly into place. Why the cleada builds them prior to his advent into the upper world, no entomologist can logically explain. Now, if you desire to see one of the most remarkable phenomena of nature, keep your eyes open during the evenings of the last week in May—fortunately, it will be moonlight then. In Georgia and the other more southern States, the date of this phenomen

[SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE OF THE TIMES.]

Washington, D. C., April 16, 1902.—This is to be by far the worst "locust year" experienced in this country since 1885. Next month will witness the sudden onsiaught, in twenty States simultaneously, of the largest brood of "seventeen-year locusts" known to science. This vast insect army, numbering countless billions, has been followed in its rawages from the year 1715, since when it has never falled to reappear in the last week of May, at regular intervals of seventeen years. Wherever it appeared is 1885, the year of its last dutbreak, it is practically sure to reappear this year. The entomologists of the Department of Agriculture are thus able to forecast its field of operations for next month.

The States to be involved are New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Delaware, Maryland, District of Columbia, Ohio, West Virginia, Virginia, Massachusetts, Vermont, Illinois, Indiana, Kentucky, Michigan, Wisconsin, Alabama, Georgin, North Carolina and Tennessee.

"Locust" is an erroneous name for this remarkable insect. It should be termed the "periodical cicada." "Locust" should be applied only to the grasshopper. The cleada became confused with the migratory locust or grasshopper of the Orient, which appears in vast numbers, at long intervals of time.

The periodical cicada is distinctly an American species. It has the longest life period of any known insect and, according to D. L. Marlatt, one of the government entomologists, who has made a special study of its habits, it is "undoubtedly the most anomalous and interesting of American insects."

Only twenty minutes will have clapsed between the splitting of the brown shell worn so many years below ground and the full expansion of the wings. If you will rise early next morning and examine these cleadas before dawn, you will discover that during the night they have assumed the dark colors characterizing them in their aerial stage.

two. The areas devastated by these two races overlap to a certain extent. Thus the seventeen-year cidadas will appear as far South as Georgia next month. These two divisions were not known to be distinct until fifty years ago. They bear to each other an absolute resemblance in structure, coloration and modes of life, but do not interbreed when thrown together. One race appears to be the offshoot of the other, the difference in period being due probably to differences in climate affecting the parent stock. Neither race has yet appeared in Northern New England, in the peninsula of Florida or in the region west of the Rockles.

It seems probable to Mr. Marlatt

one great brood, and that insufficiency of food or unfavorable temperature at one time broke up their regular and uniform periodicity. Scattering individuals now appear the year before and the year after great broods are due. In fact, some periodical cicadas come out of the ground each year in various sections, but all these first serve their long apprenticeship below ground.

panions, always in the minority, about two-thirds this size. The larger form precedes the smaller both in emerging from the ground and in dying out, and is characterized by orange-brown tints upon its abdomen.

Only the male cleada sings. His musical apparatus is a pair of small, shell-like inflated drums on his under side and about at his waist line. He vibrates these by the action of very powerful muscles, which snap the drums in and out, as you would the bottom of an oil can, but with uncomprehensible speed. Their sound is modified by adjacent disks and sounding boards.

modified by adjacent disks and sounding boards.

Soon after growing his wings, Mr. Cicada will be heard to utter a note which can best be written thus: "Pharr-r-aoh." It will sound in mournful cadence and a lowering of pitch at its termination. It has been compared with the whistling of a train passing through a short tunnel. Later he will change his note to "tsh-e-e-E-E-E-e-ou," continued for from two to twenty seconds. A third note will be similar to the clicking of a chimney swallow or the chirping of a field cricket.

The government entomologists anticbe circulated during the coming season. So great was the consternation on this account in the great "locust" year, 1868, that people ran in terror from the harmless insects, while fruits and even drinking water were under suspicion of having been poisoned thereby. While these scientists, after continued experiments, have failed to provoke the cicada to sting them, and while he is neither possessed of a sting proper nor any poisonous secretion, he may rarely perhaps and by accident insert his siender beak into the skin, causing only momentary pain like the prick of a needle point. The insect cannot defend itself against its insect enemies, much less against man.

The greatest "locust year" in the memory of men living today was 1868, when appeared the grandparents of the brood due this spring, together with the largest of the Southern or thirteen-year broods, whose greatgrandchildren are due south of Mason and Dixon's line in 1907. Again in 1885 the parents of this year's cicadas appeared in conjunction with the second largest of the thirteen-year broods. But a simultaneous appearance of the largest northern and southern broods will not occur again until 2087. We will bequeath the woes of that year to our great-g and of the marginal velns of his glassy wings.

There are two races of periodical cladas, viz., the seventeen-year race, limited to the northern half of the country, and the thirteen-year race, confined to the Southern States, the latter appearing once every thirteen years, as indicated by its name. The seventeen-year race is the larger of the two. The areas devastated by these two races overlap to a certain extent. Thus the seventeen-year cladas will appear as far South as Georgia next month. These two divisions were not known to be distinct until fifty years ago. They bear to each other an absolute resemblance in structure, coloration and modes of life, but do not interbreed when thrown together, One race appears to be the offshoot of the other, the difference in period being due probably to differences in climate affecting the parent stock. Neither race has yet appeared in Northern New England, in the peninsula of Florida or in the region west of 'he Rockies.

It seems probable to Mr. Mariatt that both the seventeen-year and thirteen-year cleadas originally composed one great brood, and that insufficiency of food or unfavorable temperature at one time broke up their regular and uniform periodicity. Scattering individuals now appear the year before and the year after great broods are due. mentioned my name, he selzed me by the hand, and thanked me for my coming.

"This, my good sir," he said, with his old-fashioned courtesy, "is a kindness which I never for an instant anticipated, and when I remember your many important engagements (important!) and the sacrifice which this gracious act (gracious!) must have entailed upon you, I feet this to be an honor, an honor, sir, for which you will accept this expression of gratitude."

It seemed as if there must have been something wrong in our imagination of a great man's manner, and when he insisted, beyond my preventing, in carrying his bag himself, and would only allow me with many remonstrances to relieve him of his books; when I had difficulty in persuading him to enter a cab, because he was anxious to walk to our house, our fancy portrait had almost disappeared. Before leaving the platform he had interviewed the guard and thanked him by both word and deed for certain "graclous and hindful attentions in the course of the journey."

he would have both that hospitality and ourselves in "continual remembrance."

Before we retired to rest I had approached the question of his expenses, aithough I had an instinct that our scholar would be difficult to handle, and he had waived the whole matter as unworthy of attention. On the way to the station I insisted upon a settlement with the result that he refused to charge any fee, being thankful if his "remarks," for he refused to give them the name of lecture, had been of any use for the furtherance of knowledge, and as regards expenses they were limited to a third-class return fare. He also explained that there were no other charges, as he traveled in cars and not in cabs, and any gifts he bestowed (by which I understood the most generous tips to every human being that served him in any fashion) were simply a private pleasure of his own. When I established him in the corner of a third-class compartment, with his humble lugsage above his head, and an Arable book in his hand, and some slight luncheon for the way in his pocket, he declared that he was going to travel as a prince. Before the train left, an old lady opposite him in the carriage—I should say a tradesman's widow—was already explaining the reason of her journey, and he was listening with benignant interest.

Three days later he returned the fee

he was listening with benignant interest.

Three days later he returned the fee which was sent him, having deducted the third-class return fare, thanking us for our undeserved generosity, but explaining that he would count it a shame to grow rich through his services to knowledge. Some years afterward I saw him in the distance, at a great public meeting, and when he mounted the platform the huge audience hurst into prolonged applause, and were all the more delighted when he, who never had the remotest idea that people were honoring him, looked around, and, catching sight of a pompous nonentity who followed him, vigorously clapped. And the only other time and the last that I saw him was on the street of a famous city, when he caught sight of a country woman dazed amid the people and the traffic, and afraid to cross to the other side. Whereupon our scholar gave the old woman his arm and led her carefully over; then he bowed to her and shook hands with her, and I watched his tall form and white halr till he was lost in the distance, and I never saw him again, for shortly after he had also passed over to the other side.

"The's so natural—doesn't seem to be an actress at all. Don't you like her?" It surely do. She's the sweetest thing that ever wore petiticoats." The man always adds: "I mean on the stare, of course."

Julia Dean of the Neill company is allead about in that way. It was only east year that she carried off the prise for popularity, offered by one of the fan Francisco papers, so it is hardly becomeny to go to the critical clearinghouse to find that out. To get a liftle light on the cause of Miss Dean's popularity requires some perspective. A paper in Nashville furnished that lar year.

"More than fifty years ago," it said, 'there came to Nashville, Tenn., a fat bod' fellow, who wore ruffled shirts, carried a great silver-headed cane and had a pretty daughter. 'Gods,' said the old timers. 'What a beauty that girl is. 'Tall she stood, and peerless,' but not too tall, and her figure graced that nest-air life whose ethereality leaves off and rotundity begins—as trim, light, graceful a figure as ever swept down to the footlights or showed in the chaste marble of the Louve. There was a quiet giving away before her wherever she went, and a fragrance and a freshness, and an innocent, artiess, natural coquetry that seemed to have caught up with many other inspirations that were hers.

There are old bucks among the play-goers, now—they were, young bucks then—who will wince at the thought of those great bright eyes—whose greasy eld waistcoats which have not concealed any sentiment for a decade at least, will thump as they read these lines—and whose rusty old romantic notions will pop up like bottle limps and remind the mount of the younger brother to the great Julia Dean, who in her prime was to the American stage what Julia Marlowe is to it now—its queen of comedy and gentle pathos; an actress whom the gods had touched. There is, perhaps, not s

Miss Dean said that Japan is her ambition. She wants to live there awhile. She was wearing a kimona when she said it, and a placque of a mimosa tree hung above the mirror into which was fast blossoming a pink complexion which the audience would soon languish over in the winsome Polity of "Capt. Lettarbiair." She was making up, and she took the reporter into her confidence and showed her all the secrets of the fiesh paint while she talked of Japan.

"There is such a luxurious fascination in it," she said. "They live such a natural life. It has art and music and richly harmonious effects and the Edward Morgan.

Edward Morgan, who will appear as John Storm in "The Christian," at the Los Angeles Theater the last haif of this week, though still under 30, has had a rambling career. Born in England, his family intended that he should be a minister of the Church of England. He was sent to Balliol College, Oxford, to prepare for the taking of orders. His divinity course was near its end when he decided that an ecclesiastical life was not meant for him. His temperament was too restless. On a holiday tramp he met Henry Labouchere, and through him best of it is that the beautiful part of life is a matter of study and cultivation.

"In Japan, to be artistic is the chief end of existence, while here it is but an incident, and people suspect one who cultivates it. There is such a continual refinement in it and such galety, and it is all reposeful—not the hideous rush and fever that we have here, especially those of us who get up in a new part each week. But the most attractive thing in Japan to a woman is the dignified, exclusive member of the home, and she is treated with a respect little short of adoration. Can you imagine a more heavenly existence?"

Agnes Booth.

Mrs. John B. Schoeffel of Boston, known for years to the stage as Agnes Booth, has been visiting T. W. Wolters of 1110 Ingraham street, a relative of her husband. Tomorrow she is to go to San Francisco for a week's visit. She appeared there professionally as a child of 15, and later as a star at the head of her own company, presented "King John," in which she played Queen Katharine. She never appeared in Los Angeles, though for years she was one of America's tragedy queens. Her first husband was Junius Booth, a brother of Edwin Booth. She is now the wife of John B. He was the original John Storm when Viola Allen was introduced as a star in "The Christian," and he was the originator of the title part in "Ben Hur." The Starbucks.

James Neill will put on a play at the Burbank tonight which Chicago has declared so refreshingly good that the engagement at the Dearborn Stock Theater which, like the Burbank here, produces a new play each week, was prolonged to seven weeks, and then taken off with the intention of a return engagement. It is to go to Boston for a run at the Tremont Theater, May 5, and will be seen in New York the first of next season. Aside from a month's tour of the Middle West, Chicago is the only city that has seen "The Starbucks," and Los Angeles comes in for a sight of it, due to Mr. Neill's enterprise, ahead of Boston and New York. A writter in a Cincinnati paper has to say of it:

a sight of it, due to Mr. Neill's enterprise, ahead of Boston and New York. A writer in a Cincinnati paper has to say of it:

"The Starbucks' is truly a refreshing contrast to the film-flam glories of burlewque opera and historical novel dramatization! And what a reposeful sensation for mind, eye and ear to see real people, to hear plain talk and to follow a plot evolved from a simple, natural combination of characters! Fault could be found with the very simplicity and insignificance of the dramatic nucleus, but let us be most thankfu! for the many fine character sketches that Opie Read brings on the stage and therefore even forgive that overdrawn, sentimental 'Old Mammy' and the cheap 'screaming eagle' phraseology of the last act. If a plot of most than ordinary originality and force had sustained and sought those splend Sir satined types together in intense action, a masterpiece would have been the result. As it is, the play reveals the qualities and defects of Read's books; a great talent for observation, characterization and description, a moderate gift of invention and a hang for 'chestnutty' expressions in serious dialogue. Bonn, the German Tragedian.

Bonn, the German Tragedian.

Herr Ferdinand Bonn, a young German actor with a great reputation and an amazingly wide range of repertoire, made his first appearance in this country last Monday night at the Irving Place Theater, New York, in Schillers "Die Rauber," a wild and wearisome melodrama of the most violent type.

Herr Bonn is a man of middle stature, which may be easily "built up when occasion offers to commanding height. His face, mobile and full of expression, has naturally a rather heavy cast, which does not prevent one, nowever, from discerning its possibilities for comedy. There can be no doubt of the quality of his talent, which is very great, with occasional suggestions or genius. That it will grow in beauty and fullness with the years was plainly suggested last night, but at present Herr Bonn is a young actor to whom mastery of technique has not yet become a habit; his method is still too plainly perceptible in all but a few of his best dramatic moments, when the promise of what is still to be is strikingly great. Just now he is decided:y still the junior, in more senses than one, of Poscart and Somenthal.—[Mil] and Express.

OUIPS AND CUES.

May Irwin is reported to be definitely engaged for Weber and Fields for next season.

It has been definitely settled that Edna May will be seen in this country next season under Charles Frohman's management.

The Club.

The Los Angeles Trio Club, which gave such a noteworthy concert recently, has been engaged by G. I. Birkell to open the pretty Steinway Hall on Spring street. The affair will be by invitation, and a sterling programme will be presented by the club. Miss Anna Virginia Metcalfe, soprano, will assist. The date is April 25.

Theater on Wednesday evening. April 16, assisted by his daughter, Julia, one of the leading contraitos of this country.

Heinrich gave great delight when he was here four years ago, and will be warmly welcomed. He presents aft exceedingly interesting programme of German, English, Italian and French songs. He is a magnificent performer on the piano and usually accompanies his own selections. He has a strong gift of humor and is supreme in the power of giving the emotional atmosphere of a song and in bringing out its inner meaning. Miss Julia Heinrich has a strong voice, fresh and pure, of wonderfully even quality. The programme will be as follows: Two duets (a) "So War Die Sonne Scheint" (As True as the Sun is Shining;) (b) "Untern Fenster" (Under the Windows) Max Heinrich, Miss Julia Heinrich (Schumann;) songs, "Fruehlingslaube" (Faith in Spring;) "Standehen" (serenade;) "Die Taubenpost" (the Carrier Pigeon,) Max Heinrich, (Schubert;) songs, "L'Esclave" (The Slave;) "Marrine" (The Sea,) (Lalo;) "Arioso," "Myrtho," Miss Julia Heinrich (Leo Delibes;) three duets (a) "Gondoleria," (b) "Armour Villageoise" (Village Love) (c) (Henschel;) "Mein Herz Werde Wach" (Awake, My Heart,) (Goring Thomas;) songs (a) "The Gardener and the Rose;" (b) "The Gardener and the Rose;" (b) "The Wanderer:" (c) "The Little Blue Mandarin;" (d) "I Arise from Dreams of Thee," Miss Julia Heinrich; songs (a) "Spring Song" (MacKenzie;) (b) "It is not Always May" (Gounod;) (c) "Songs My Mother Taught Me" (Dvorak;) (d) "Der Erl Koenig" (Schubert,) Max Heinrich.

$2.25, $2.00, $1.75, $1.65, $1.50 and $1.35 Muslin Skirts

Daintiest, Prettiest Lingerie, all Marked at One Price.

In order to introduce our new stock of Spring Undermuslins, we shall deliberately sell several hundred of the prettiest muslin and cambric skirts at a price you would hardly believe could be possible. We are willing to take the loss in order to get you interested in the thousands and thousands of delicate and beautiful bits of lingerie that we have gathered for spring trade. The poorest skirt in the lot sells regularly at $1.85. There are hosts of others that bring $1.50, $1.65, $1.75, $2.00, and a good part of them are skirts that would be very reasonable at $2.25. They come in umbrella style with deep flounces, with clusters of fine tucks, trimmed with fine torchon insertion, lace edges, and hemstitched hems, and are made in extra widths and lengths. They are so fine, so prettily designed, so nice altogether that it seems almost pitiful to mark them at such an absurd little price. You will find them displayed in one of the Hale windows, and the lot go on special sale Monday.

We Will Ask You to Remember

That this special offer is for the purpose of bringing before your attention the Hale stock of undermuslins. We can safely say that nowhere can you find such exquisite styles or such splendid values for the money. Every price seems almost too small. Needn't add that Hale undermuslins are known as the finest to be had. The first time you find yourself in need, come straight to the Hale store and inspect this big stock.

The manufacturer, who by special arrangements supplies the seven Hale steres with art squares, opened his eyes with wonder when our big order of a few months past was doubled three times. We prepose to sell art squares for less money than the average store pays for them. Den't believe anyone will doubt us when we deliberately mark these handsome art squares, size 9 by 9 feet at $2.70. No store in the land sells them at less than $8.50. The smaller stores ask, goodness knows how much. Colors are most attractive, and the quality is one of suprising durability. No matter how limited your purse there is no excuse for an untidy floor, with such a chance to buy a nice, big covering. 110 art squares are in the lot. They will be placed on sale at 8 o'clock tomorrow morning.
